I am so proud to say that Mr. D.H. "Swede" Aldridge was my dad. I was so lucky to have him as a father and a friend. I will miss him more then I can say. He will never be forgotten and when my son is old enough to understand I will tell him the stories about his papaw. They will be great and they will be many. I hope to raise my son the way my dad raised me.I love you dad and I look forward to the time we get to see each other again. Your Loving Son,Larry##imported-begin##Larry Aldridge##imported-end##

Mr. Aldridge was a very sweet man. I was his nurse aid once or twice on S400 at Good Shepherd Medical Center. His wife is one of the strongest women I have ever met. Mr. Aldrige had a wonderful family, they were the most wonderful people!!! I sure have enjoyed being a small part of the Aldridge's for a short time. I sure will miss seeing them, maybe we'll meet up in Wal-Mart one day. You all have touched a part of me, I love you!! Joanne##imported-begin##Joanne Huckaby##imported-end##
