Steve, Nancy and family, I am so sorry to hear about your Mom's death. She was loved by all. I know that she has had a long illness and I hope the end came easy. Steve and Nancy, I know there will be a big void in your lives now becaue you have taken such good care of her for so long. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I wish I could have gotten to Longview for the service, but I have been sick again and don't go too many places. Love, Mary Cahill##imported-begin####imported-end##

We were sorry to hear about our neighbor. She was a sweet lady and will be missed. We were blessed to have known her. We do understand what it means to lose a parent, I have lost both of mine and Marsha just lost her dad a few months ago. Our prayers will be with the family during the days ahead as you grieve, rejoice and adjust to life without her. If we can be of any help, please do not hesitate to call on us next door at 105. We are sorry we could not attend the service, but know it was a fitting tribute to her life. May God bless each member of the family in the days ahead, and ease your sorrow. Your mother was such a wonderful person to me, each time I had the 'pleasure' of seeing her. I was too young to remember when she lived on Oak Drive in Kilgore, but I see the name "Morgan-Short" Home each day I pass there and think of her. She was such a Close friend of my mother, Clarice Kerr, and I always appreciated their friendship and my friendship with her as a result of that. She "always" made me feel so 'good' every time we met, with the warmest of greetings. I know everyone will miss her terribly, but I'm sure that God has received her with open arms.##imported-begin##Mike Kerr##imported-end##
