I was thinking about Bruce today. I met Bruce when he worked as a casual employee with Yellow Freight. We became great friends. We had many late night conversations about everything in the world. We had a great long conversation the night he passed away. I was in shock when I heard thru Greg Johnson that Bruce had passed away. Life is fragile and short. We never know when our last day will be. Really miss talking with him.

My deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs.Coleman and family.My ex-husband Greg Johnson and myself were good friends with Bruce for many years.He was the kind of person who you could call at any time of day or night and he would be right there without asking any questions.I have so many memories of laughing so hard with him I had tears running down my face.He was the only person I knew who could antagonize you in one second and have you laughing in the next.He loved his family and was good to his friends.I will surely think of him and smile.He will be missed.Donna Johnson##imported-begin##Donna Johnson##imported-end##
