Katie, Christine, and Brendan were all born within weeks of each other and although we lived far apart we thought of them as sharing a special time in the lives of their parents and grandparents. As cousins in South Bend we were close and share your grief at her early death. We can only live each day in the present and hope to share the love she shared with us. My heartfelt condolences are for everyone, Don and especially for Mary. There are no words that can express such a heartfelt loss. I hope she can eventually heal and with the help of her husband, Carl, continue with her new life and marriage.##imported-begin##Janet Varga Berry##imported-end##

Kate Kate was my friend. Katie loved the blues and didn't care if you liked the blues or not, you were going to listen if you were with her. Many a time we would ride along listening to Etta James, over and over. She went to Sun Records last year with Elise and brought back shirts, hats, stickers, and anything else she could find. But, her prize from the trip was a lifesize picture of Muddy "Mississippi" Waters' face she got one for PJ too. I remember picking up the picture for Kate on a day that I was in town, it was framed and ready. Man was she proud of that picture. I can still see her face. Katie always looked out for the underdog. She was kind to everyone and truly brought light to a dull day. I was always happy to see her coming. How many people can you say that about? Well, lastly I want everyone to know that Katie lives forever in my heart and if you need to talk please give me a call. I can't talk as fast as Kate but I can give it hell trying. 903-738-3283.
