My heartfelt condolences upon Deb's passing. I hadn't seen her since last summer, and didn't know she was ill. I have known Debbie for quite a long time, thru my cousin Ed Walker and his family. I know how tough it is to get through these times and keep the world in prospective. Just remember that Debbie is with you always. A breeze that touches your cheek on a hot day, or a beautiful sunset, in all your thoughts. Keep her in your heart and she will live forever.Blessings, Valencia Smotherman##imported-begin##Valencia Smotherman##imported-end##

My prayers are with you as your family grieves the loss of Debbie.I was a dialysis nurse at Good Shepherd back when they still had the unit open there and had many conversations with Debbie during her treatments. There were times she tried your patience, but I can say she would do anything for you if she was able. Again, I am sorry for your loss and I pray the Lord comforts you in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Brenda Cash##imported-end##

Dear Jennifer, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your precious mother. I know that this is an almost unbearable time for you. I understand. My mother died in February of this year. I will be praying for you and your family today and in the upcoming weeks. I hope that you will find comfort in these words from the Lord: He is the source of every mercy and the God who comforts us. 2 Cor. 1:3 and He heals the brokenhearted, binding up their wounds. Ps.147:3
