Tyson Douglas Reagan

Tyson Douglas Reagan touched many lives with his faithful witness and testimony to his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Tyson was born on January 7, 1984 in Houston, TX. He was the oldest child of Douglas and Cyndy Reagan of Hallsville. Tyson went to be with his Lord on August 17, 2002. Tyson graduated from Hallsville High School in May of 2002. He was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years, and was Vice President of his senior year. He was also the varsity boys basketball manager for four years. He was the cross country manager for three years and girls softball statistician for two years. In 2000, he was selected the Hallsville High School Out-standing Biology Student. In 2001, he was awarded the Outstanding AP History Student. He was a Texas Globe Scholar with Distinction. He was awarded the Don Walenta Memorial Scholarship, among many other scholarships. Tyson had a lifelong dream of attending LeTourneau University. He loved reading C.S. Lewis, contemporary Christian music, and hiking. He served as a mission worker in several communities around the United States. He was looking forward to serving as a Christian youth counselor for Young Life. He was proud of his work with the Sam's Club of Longview. Tyson is survived by his parents Douglas and Cyndy Reagan; his brother, Tucker; and his sister, Taylor. He is also survived by grandparents, Billy and Eva Skinner of Houston, and grandmother, Helen Reagan of Corpus Christi; uncle, Chuck Skinner of Lindsey; uncle and aunt, Michael and Sandy Skinner of Brisbane, Australia; uncle and aunt, Mark and Yolanda Reagan of San Diego, CA. Dear friends, We met Tyson several times when we visited Jeanette & Matt and attended your church with Ron & Gail. We were so sorry to hear about Tyson's death, but were thrilled that so many people came to his memorial service and that Ron was the speaker! We pray that even still people will choose to put their trust in Jesus Christ as a result of knowing Tyson and hearing what Ron said. Our hearts ache for you...both of us lost our first spouses by death; my husband was 34; Truett's first wife was 29. We don't know how long we'll live, but we need to "work while it is still day" as the Bible says. My first husband loved Jesus and was a quiet man, a hard worker at church and for the Lord. There were hundreds at his memorial service, too, and he touched more people through his death than he could have ever touched through his life. We know that Tyson's influence will continue for years and years. Thank you for raising such a fine son! We have been, and will continue to pray for God's strong arms to wrap around you and keep you close...##imported-begin##Rev. & Mrs. Truett Johnson##imported-end##

Doug, Cyndy, Tyson, and Taylor,It is hard to find the words to say in times like these but I would like for each of you to know that Tyson meant a great deal to me. I had the privilage of spending a week with him in Pennsylvania last summer and that is definitely a trip I will never forget and one reason is because of Tyson. We were constantly laughing at things he would say or puns he would make. There is no doubt in my mind that he loved the Lord and lived to share that with others and for that I am eternally grateful for having known him. I am so sorry for your loss and I will continue to keep all of you in my prayers. Stay strong in the Lord and He will lift you up.Kristine##imported-begin##Kristine Slate##imported-end##

Even in his death, others are pointed to the Lord because of the life that Tyson lived. I know that you were proud of him then, as you must be proud now knowing his life has touched so many. Doug, Cyndy, Tucker & Taylor, I want you to know that I am praying daily sometime hourly for you guys. At times like these, the King's English falls is far too limited to express what my heart is feeling for you guys. Romans 8:26 says, "And the Holy Spirit helps us in our distress. For we don't even know what we should pray for, nor how we should pray. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words." This verse sums up some of my prayers to God regarding your loss. I just sit still in front of God asking the Spirit to communicate, because I don't have the words. Maybe this is where you are at this time, too? I know I would be. Know that I love you guys and I am praying for you. His and yours, Salt###imported-begin##Salt Jones###imported-end##

Dear Family I know from past experiences that no words can ever change your feeling on this day, but eventually they will become words of healing. The things that you hear today and the hugs that you receive today can not change your heart, but time will help. There will always be a void in your family, just because we are all human and even though you know that your child has gone on to a better place, your heart still holds him here. I know that your minds are running wild with emotions and fears and so much hurt. God has a plan and only He can see the road before you and your family, so when your hearts are hurting and the tears are falling - trust Him as never before. God will be there to carry you through. As we were outside Saturday, we had the honor of witnessing a beautiful double rainbow in the sky and to me this is only a glimpse of heaven. Just to know that your son is there and celebrating with my Jesus is more awesome than I could ever imagine. Tucker, I feel that I know you the best and I feel comfortable telling you to call me if you ever need to talk. I have been through a similar situation and maybe I can understand your need. I'll gladly share with you what helped me and my family any time that you may call. My home phone is 668-4035 and we live on 450N. I would like to help you carry your burdens, call me. Dear Reagan Family,I am a dear friend of Pastor Billy Skinner. I met Tyson a couple of times at church when he visited his GrandDad here in Houston. What an awesome young man of God! I was so impressed by his maturity and genuine love of Christ and His people.I want to commend you for your obedience to Jesus in teaching your precious son all about Him! It's the best gift a parent or family could ever give. May the Lord bless you with an overwhelming sense of peace and comfort and I pray that our Father would show you His love in a very special way in the coming months and years.We grieve with you and we Praise God for the immeasurable witness that Tyson was...and continues to be!We love you!Paul and Jessica RollinsSpring, TX##imported-begin##Paul Rollins##imported-end##

Dear Precious Reagan Family, Our deepest sympathy goes out to you during the loss of your precious son & brother. Praying that this scripture will comfort you deeply...I Thessalonians 4:13-14, 16-18"...we do want you to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him...For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first! After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord FOREVER. Therefore, encourage each other with these words."Praying For You As We Listen For The Trumpet!!!!Marshall, Tracy, Marshall, Cody & Michelle###imported-begin##The Marshall Jones Family###imported-end##

Doug and Cindi,We feel a great sadness for you in the loss of your son Tyson. Needless to say, all the words offered to you will not erase your pain. However, knowing that Tyson had believed in Christ for eternal life will enable you to draw strength from 1 Cor.15:54-55, "So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, death is swallowed up in victory. Words never seem to be enough in a time like this... yet, God's Word is our strength! "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time." I Peter 1: 3-5. Tyson will always be remembered for his faith in Christ Jesus!! feel so blessed to have had the opportunity to have taught Tyson not only once but twice throughout his high school years. I recall his courage when sharing Christ with me and others in class and at F.C.A. meetings. Along with his witty personality in which everyone will remember him being the Pun Master, he will be remembered even more for his witness for Christ Jesus. Dear Reagan Family, This is a troubling time to know that a man who loved God so much would be taken from this world. I had the opportunity to be in several classes with Tyson in which he truly blessed me. He showed me how to have character when people were laughing in my face. I will truly miss Tyson.
