Dear Mrs. Stapp and Josh, I'm so sorry to hear about Jena's passing. She was such a sweet and beautiful person. I wasn't given the honor to have danced with her on Belles because I was a freshman when she was a senior, but even after she graduated she was still an inspiration to the team. Her love and dedication to the Belles was truly genuine, seeing as how she would always take time out of her busy schedule to come and teach us her awesome pom routines. She was a delight and joy to be around and she's touched more lives than she'll ever know, and I'm so honored to be just one of the many she's inspired. May Jena always shine in heaven...you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Crystal Toland##imported-end##

Debbie, Losing one of my children has always been one of my greatest fears. I can't begin to imagine the devastation you are experiencing. One of the joys of raising our children in a community such as ours, is the pleasure we derive from watching each of them evolve into adulthood. I feel both pride and admiration for the incredible young woman Jena chose to become. It is truly a gift to be given a child, as wonderful as Jena, for a daughter. I had the opportunity of working with Jena in the ESSC, she was my sister through Kappa and I had the honor of being her supervisor while she was an Eagle Ambassador. She was always a delight to be around. I always knew I could depend on Jena to get the job done - and with a smile! As a baby shower gift Jena gave me a bright colored faucet protector for the bath tub. Every night during my baby's bath time I have a reminder of your beautiful daughter - the bright colors represent her happy spirit and the joy she brought to us all and the fact that it is a protector reminds me that I have a Guardian Angel in Heaven watching over me. To the Stapp family and Will, I only had the opportunity to know Jena for a short time, as she worked at our accounting firm this summer. But just in that short period of time I could see what an intelligent, beautiful, and ambitious girl she was. It is often so hard to understand why things happen but we must trust that God, the Creator of the universe, knows better than we ever will. I am praying that God would wrap His arms around you and hold you tightly during this time. I pray that the following scripture verse be of comfort to you: "I remember my affliction and my wandering, the bitterness and the gall. I well remember them, and my soul is downcast within me. But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his mercies are new every day. Great is His faithfulness. For the Lord does not cast off forever, though He causes grief, He will show compassion, according to the multitude of His mercies. For He does not willingly bring affliction or grief upon the children of men." Lamentations 3:22-24, 31-33 May God be with you all.##imported-begin##Jenny Worsham##imported-end##

I am so sorry for your loss. I teach at UNT and my office is a couple of doors down from Jena's. We are all stunned. She was a wonderful person, a beautiful spirit, and something of a role model/ target for me as a parent. You see, I have an 8 year old daughter, and I had, on several occasions, realized that I would feel successful as a parent if Hannah grew up to be the kind of person that Jena was. Perhaps it may be in some way comforting for you to know that there is a father somewhere, steering and shaping his daughter in Jena's image. She was such a success in every way, and I know you were all very proud of the young woman she had become. Of course, words can't remove the pain that you are feeling, but I pray that someday, the raw hurt is replaced with a sense of appreciation and gratitude for the time that you were given with Jena. You were fortunate to have had such a wonderful daughter and sister. My thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Mark Sandel##imported-end##
