I sit here today, years later thinking of you. I miss you so much Ashley! You were a true friend. I always think about all our good times hanging out after school. Certain songs that come on the radio or in the grocery store remind me of you. I have a 13 year old son now. It's so hard to believe how fast our lives change. You will always be remembered. - Brittney Young - Reno, Nevada - January 2026

Sweet Ashley, We thank God that the Taylor's came to New York this summer 2002. Yes, you are a sweet, gentle and fun loving girl like everyone in your memorial book has stated. I wish that we had been a closer family and gotten to do some things together. While you are being our angel from above, please watch over your mom, your dad and your brother. God had to have a reason to want to take you into his kingdom at this time, but He can never take you from our hearts. God bless you Ashley Taylor and may you rest in peace. Love you.##imported-begin##Uncle Rod, Aunt Jamie & Melissa##imported-end##

Cindy, you are like a mother to me, an Ashley was my sister. I hurt so much for you, Jack, and Tommy. We were all close. You all were my home away from home. Anytime I needed you, you were there for me. I love you so much. If there is anything you'll need, just let me know. You have done so much for me. As I know Ashley would still want us to be a family. So please don't forget that if you need anything, just let me know, I don't care if it is 3 am...just call...love you, Jamie##imported-begin##jamie##imported-end##

Butterflies and Blazes Poem - In My Heart Forever by Cynthia Taylor
The time has come for me to release you Free to fly high above this world. Where the flowers forever bloom & The ultimate love fills the space. In my attempt to try to keep you I've only been able to hold the anger Not realizing that I have to let you go I can't hold on. I'll no more keep your pain alive, I won't try to hold you down. I'll let you fly on to higher ground. My grief has left a numbness, as if this isn't real You are in my heart forever, but I know I have to let you free. Soar high. Laugh as a child that feels the joy of the moment. Play among the rivers flowing through the hills. Roam the fields of daisies. Fly to the top of the mountains. With closed eyes, I see you among the flowers, High above the clouds. Your presence blows through me with the breeze. Your smile beams down on through the sun. The full moon brings the light of your laughter to my mind. And the Butterfly in all its splendor reminds me of your beauty and freedom now. Leaving your love for me lingering in my world.##imported-begin##natalie##imported-end##

Cindy and Tommy: I am so very sorry for your loss. I can only imagine what it is like losing a child and a sister. If there is anything I can do for you, please let me know. I have always loved ya'll and have been wondering how ya'll have been for a long time. If you need me you let me know, and I will help you in ANY way that I can. I have missed ya'll and have been trying to figure out how to get in touch with ya'll. I am so very sorry for your loss, but she is in a better place now, where she has nothing to worry about, and has the perfect life. God bless you all, and I hope that you all are doing okay. FOR MY SWEET ASH, I know how hard it is to lose the one you love. But look up in the sky, the cloud up near the dove. And you will see her face, just smiling proud at you. And you will know she cares that you miss her so, too. And she will always be in your heart and in your head. For she's a Lily White. And you're a Rose so Red. For she'd have liked the things you do and keep on doing. And she'll be there just when your troubles are ensuing. And solve those troubles then. For you, though a surprise she sees through things you can't. With soft caressing eyes. So miss her not TOO much. But CRY your tears 'til dry. For she is in your heart. She's right up there on high! I MISS U SO MUCH!!!
