I can't say thanks enough to the people who loved my dad so much. He impacted so many lives, as well as your life touched his. He was a very lucky man to have had you all in his life. I miss him so much it hurts, he was my best friend as well as my daddy. I know in time my heart will heal but the loss still seems to grow. I thank you again for loving my dad.##imported-begin##Angie West##imported-end##

My heartfelt condolences go out to Obie's and Elizabeth's family. I knew Obie only through e-mail over the past several years - we shared a common interest in photography. He shared many interesting and funny stories with me, dealing with truck driving, photographing weddings and even his battle with heart disease. I will certainly miss his messages from the "O-zone".##imported-begin##Randy Holst##imported-end##

My prayers to both Angie and Tonya in your great loss. I will always remember the kindness your dad showed me when I was a young girl. Especially when he let me drive him around in his cars. I had some very good times as a teen at your mom and dads home. He will be missed. Love and prayers to you all. Love Aunt Elaine##imported-begin##Elaine Gros##imported-end##

My thoughts and prayers are with your family in this time of loss. I was not fortunate to have met Obie. I know he will be missed. I pray that joy will come to you in the next days knowing what we celebrate this time of year. Obie and Elizabeth are at peace and rest which is what we would want for them. They were ready to celebrate. Their Christmas Tree was up, and so is mine! May God Bless each of you in the days to come. Cheri, Elizabeth's cousin##imported-begin##Cheri Brown##imported-end##
