Lola Elizabeth Nixon

Funeral services for Lola Elizabeth Nixon will be held at 10 AM Friday, January 3, 2003 in the Chapel of Rader Funeral Home with the Reverend Randy Hageman officiating. Burial will be at 2 PM Friday at Holly Springs Cemetery, Ben Wheeler, TX. She died Sunday, December 29, 2002, in Longview. Visitation will be held from 4 to 6 PM Thursday at the funeral home. Lola was born January 28, 1958 in Muskogee, OK., and was raised in the Longview and Hallsville area. After she left her job in hotel management, which required a lot of travel and moving, she settled back in Longview 4 years ago and began a career in management with Sitel. She was a graduate of the University of North Texas, and received her MBA at Stephen F. Austin University. She was preceded in death by her father, Lewis Wayne Nixon and her brother, Kenneth Nixon. Survivors include her mother, Lola Emadel "Del" Nixon of Longview; and numerous friends and other family. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of choice.

Loosing a friend of 25 years is like loosing a part of yourself. My buddy from University of North Texas has left quite an impression on me for all these years. My college years would not have been the same without her and I often think back to those days and all the fun we had together. All those classes, all that studying, and maybe a few of those parties. I will miss her terribly and there will always be a little place in my heart for her. There is not another person like her. I am again sadden at the passing of Lola's mom. Lola was one of the most cheerful people I ever met and I often looked forward to going in to work just to see her smile and hear that wonderful laugh she had. She was my teamlead and a great one at that. More than that I considered her a friend. Her memory will remain with so many of us. Words can't express the sorrow that comes in this. Yet her smile will always be there.

Mrs. Nixon--I am sure that you don't remember me, but I was in your fifth grade Language Arts Class at Hallsville Middle School back in 1977. I am James and Earlene Daily's nephew. My name is now Edward, I changed it from Yancy nine years ago. I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your daughter. Cherish her memory and the times you had together. The Vikings had a saying that I think applies now: "Wealth fades, Kinsmen die, but word fame lives forever." Give your daughter word fame. Sincerely, Edward Vestal

Mrs. Nixon, You were my 5th grade teacher at Hallsville. We didn't even have lockers in the old Intermediate Bldg. We had plastic bins around the room. You were the best and inspired me to teach also. I've taught 4th and 5th grade for the past 13 years for Bobby Hunt at New Diana and loved it and the kids so much. Lola was one year ahead of me in school and was a dear friend. I played the flute and she played the drums. I still remember her big smile and contagious laughter just like yours! on Friday nights with her majorette uniform on. There was and never will be anyone quite like her. For reasons we don't understand, God has called her home and oh, what a beautiful place she is in! We can't even begin to imagine. We'll all meet again one day, and what a day it will be! All my love and prayers are with you. Cindy Davidson Keith Emadel, How my heart hurts! I was so shocked to hear about Lola. "Hearts speak when words cannot." While I don't know the perfect words to say or the exact thing to do to comfort you, I want you to know how sorry I am to hear of your loss. I'm sorry we didn't know, we would have been there with you on Friday. I love you and my prayers are with you. I was just talking to someone the other day about how fun cousins are... You and Lola would pass down her clothes and how I looked forward to that. Lola is also the one who peaked my interest in twirling. I remember the pink panther and I still have one of her batons she gave me. I know that was along time ago, however my fond memoires of our visits are very special to me. To be left by someone we love is to experience a break in the heart's flow. To be left is to endure unanswered questions, to feel fear, anger, rejection, grief. It is life in the passive tense: we did not leave ? we were left. Spiritual separation, when the bond of two spirits has been severed by someone else's choice, hurts badly. Where is the hope? How do we go on? At its most painful, being left even brings the question, "Do I want to go on?" Once we answer yes to this, we can start to heal. We can choose to accept what is. We can find our way with the help of God's grace and the support of people who love us and want us in their lives. To yield to someone's wish to end a relationship is an act of respect. To want the best for someone, even when it means enduring our own loss, is an act of love. You will be in my prayers always!!! I am at such a loss for words over this horrendous and senseless act. My heart goes out to those who were a daily part of Lola's life and will miss her presence. As I shared on the phone with you Mrs. Nixon, you and Leslie are in my thoughts and prayers and I pray for God's to guide you and comfort you through this difficult time. Having grown up in Longview as a family friend, there are so many childhood memories of Lola that I have to carry with me...I remember Lola's infectious laugh and compassion for others. Like the time Lola and I advised my foster sister, Brenda, not to climb a tree because she would fall -- and she did and broke her arm. Lola was the sympathetic and compassionate one who stayed with Brenda and comforted her while I went to get tell our parents, and I got in trouble for letting her climb the tree. Lola was quite a little actress, I remember that we used to dress up and put on plays for our friends and parents, and Mrs. Nixon would occasionally let us do play tea parties with her Baccarat crystal because I thought they were so pretty. After we moved from Longview we only saw each other occasionally, but I remember being at Bell Band Competition and seeing the Hallsville busses. I wanted to see Lola, but my band director would not let me, so the boyfriend of one of my bandmates went to the other side of the stadium and located her to tell her I was there. She and several friends came over to see me and spent some time visiting with us. I've never forgotten that! I could go on and on, but probably couldn't share anything that those who are close to her don't already know -- Lola was a wonderful, kind, caring and compassionate person who we all will miss. Lola was one of my best friends in high school. I regret so much that we didn't keep in touch. When we were on the majorette line together we would occasionally spend the night at each other's houses. I'll never forget the hairless dog she had at that time. Its skin was like a rhinoceros hide. Both of us played percussion in the band and we dreaded those Friday try-outs that Mr. Goff made us go through. Neither one of us wanted to beat the other one out. Our legs stayed black and blue from those heavy drums being strapped to our thighs and having David Gilbert and Mike Godfrey throw drumsticks at us didn't help much either. It is a shame for something so horrendous to happen to such a special person like Lola. I know she will be greatly missed by her mother and friends.
