Mary and Family, In dating one of David's grandsons I got to know him pretty well. He was always someone I would want to be around because of his personality and presence. He will be missed terribly. My heart and prayers go out to you and all of your family.##imported-begin##Ashly Thornton##imported-end##

Mary, We are so sorry about your loss, times like these are never easy infact they are quite difficult. But if we hang on to the promises of God he will see us through. I can't say I know how you feel for every situation is different but I did experience a major loss in Dec and with God's love he has given me the strength that I need to live life here on earth. David worked with us at Fleetwood and we always enjoyed his presence. May God Bless you and keep you always. Chip and Tami Williams##imported-begin##Chip and Tami Williams##imported-end##
