Having spent seven years attending the same church with Sis. Marguerite Grimes, these things were apparent: she was faithful, a Christian in character. It was an honor having her as a friend. She will be missed by many. I'm confident that I will see her again some day on the other side.##imported-begin##Nathan Hargrave##imported-end##

I have many precious memories of Sister Grimes. I went to church with her when I was a younger. She was always there with a smile, and she was always there. We knew something major had happened if Sister Grimes wasn't there. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God give you comfort. Curtis Thompson##imported-begin##Curtis Thompson##imported-end##

My Heart hurts with yours. I loved precious Marguerite--I was talking to her neighbor, Julia King, this afternoon we did not know she had gone to be with the Lord and each saying how we loved her and missed her sweet smile. I did not know she was sick and I feel so bad that I did not do anything for her. I will guarantee you one thing, SHE IS IN HEAVEN NOW SITTING WITH HER LORD & SAVIOR. May God comfort your hurt Hearts. I loved her so, MillieYou may receive this twice-I got mixed up on my email address and tried to correct it but I so wanted you to know you are on my Heart.##imported-begin##Millie Harper##imported-end##
