What pleasant memories we have of Grandma Bradley. We first heard from her by mail before meeting her personally. She wrote many letters to us while we were in the Central African Republic. When we finally got to meet her face to face, we loved her warmth and sense of humor. Each time we would come to Longview on home ministries, we looked forward to visiting with her. Mike picked up on Johnny's loving teasing of his mother-in-law and now enjoys doing the same to his. Both Grandma Bradley and Mike's mother-in-law Agnes Bracker have been good at dishing it back. We extend our sympathy to the family of Grandma Bradley. She will long be remembered by us. What joy she must be experiencing now. Isn't it wonderful that the Lord allowed her 100 years here on this earth and now to spend eternity with Him. One of the things I remember most about Grandma Bradley is that she always had a big smile for everyone and she always cheered my heart with her smile! I used to wonder how she could be so happy when she was in so much pain. What a blessing she was!##imported-begin##Margie Runia##imported-end##

Grandma was a wonderful, Godly woman. I am so blessed to have such a rich Christian heritage. It is such a comfort to know that she is with her Saviour now--serving Him just as she always did, but just closer to the throne!##imported-begin##Joy Mayes Dean##imported-end##

Even though I am 50 now, I remember the days as a child going to visit Grandma in Calif. She didn't have a lot of money, but she had a lot of love and gave us small treats whenever we visited. I still remember those special times. I remember her house made out of refrigerator plywood. Her garage where we sometimes slept, and so many other things that made Grandma's a fun place to visit. Her example of faithfulness to God, her family, her job - are all things that I carry with me. My biggest regret is that due to living so far apart physically, that my own children were not able to know their great-grandma, like I knew Grandma when I was young.##imported-begin##Rick & Judy Fairman##imported-end##

I have many fond memories of my dear Aunt Isabel. To this day an important part of our Thanksgiving tradition is grape ice one of her specialties. Our kids love it and when we were kids we loved it. She always made the best fried rabbit with homemade gravy and biscuits. Most of all I admired her faith and love of her family. Love, Twyla##imported-begin##Twyla Slater##imported-end##

Grandman Bradley was a model homemaker. We loved her smile and her sweet disposition. Her apples and yams recipe has been our family favorite for 27 years. Dianna shared the recipe with me when I got married. Our sympathy to all the family. Especially Margorie and Johnny; you have taken excellent care of your mom! Though we mourn the loss of loved ones, we rejoice in the fact that they are with Jesus. Grandma Bradley is probably tending to the children in heaven just as she did to so many children here, ours included. We are grateful for the influence she had on our kids lives. We will be praying for the family. We love you. Tom and Jean Ames##imported-begin##Tom and Jean Ames##imported-end##
