I am so sorry about Bertha. I had "lost" her and been unable to remember her Birthday. I loved her. I loved her Sister - I knew her as Fannie--the Family knew her as Betty. I spent lots of School nights at her home and I dearly loved her Parents/Family and I remember a Grand Mother. They lived by the Railroad tracks in a home provided by the Railroad as I recall. They were all lovely people--it was so good to see Fannie and hurt so when she passed away. I remember that she had saved everything all through School and had it all arranged in a lovely book. She was always real smart an a good basketball player. We were "Mutt & Jeff" me being so tall--we were good friends and it was through that relationship that I knew Bertha and dearly loved her. She thought so much of Bro. & Mrs. Brooks--some of my happy Memories of her. Bertha was a lovely, gracious lady. God bless her Soulthey don't make them any better.
