Dear Judy, You and I just hit it off from the very beginning when we met in the early 90's. I have always been convinced that God had a hand in our friendship, and my hubby, Bobby, just automatically loved and bonded with you and Radford. Radford was a honey, and you were so faithful to him. God bless you, Judy, and always know that I am as close as the telephone. Bobby feels the same way...he's a jack of all trades, you know. Radford was such a good, honorable man, and we feel so blessed to have known him. Judy, let's stay in touch...you're a blessing to me, too. Love you, Sally##imported-begin##Bobby & Sally Soefje##imported-end##

Mrs. Judy. You know how much I admired and respected Buddy. He was a dear man and I loved the time that we got to spend with him and get to know him. You are a godly woman, Judy, who stood with and took care of your husband admirably. I know the Lord will comfort you and encourage you in the days to come. Judy, Haley, Kristin, Allison, and myself will be praying for you. Love you, Troy##imported-begin##Troy Bayne##imported-end##

Buddy was such a gentleman. I will miss him.....One if my first memories of him mid '80s was of him trying to teach me to make homemade tomato juice.....He brought me some he had made and instructed me as to how to do it myself, at home.....never got it to taste like his. My prayers are with you. George Strunk##imported-begin##George Strunk##imported-end##
