This is a little something I wrote for my Dad and thought I'd post it here to share with everyone. The Daydream by Tammy Youngblood
Though I'm wide awake, I dream of a time when sleep was easier to come by when a thought of you wasn't followed by a tear when the sound of your voice wasn't a fading memory when the touch of your hand upon my shoulder wasn't a mirage when I could whisper your name from a million miles away and you couldn't even hear me when to see you meant I had to have my eyes open not closed to sleep
Though I am wide awake I wish I were only dreaming and that you weren't really gone. ##imported-begin## Tammy Youngblood ##imported-end##

We were shocked to learn of Ed's death in the morning paper. We have lost touch since he left Pine Tree. Ed & Jerry worked together for many years. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of the family during this difficult time. ##imported-begin## Jerry & Judy Rucker ##imported-end##

June: I was shocked to see Ed's obituary in the paper. I have lost touch with lots of Pine Tree folks since I went to Sabine ISD about 7 years ago. I think of you from time to time and have often wondered where life has taken you. I am sorry for your loss. I will be thinking of you and would love to hear from you when you have time. Love, Susan Berry ##imported-begin## Susan Berry ##imported-end##
