Mom,I miss you so much! I know you don't want us to cry for you' but I just can't help it. I think about you every day and oh how I wish I could talk to you! Allison and Logan are graduating this weekend and I and they always planned on you being there. I know you are in spirit, but that just isn't the same as you being there. Allison is so beautiful and Logan is so handsome. We are taking them on a cruise for graduation, and you would be right there with us. I love you and miss you.Janie##imported-begin##Janie##imported-end##

Dear Mom,Where do I begin? I miss you so much. I want to pick up the phone and call you everyday to tell you things that are happening in our lives. Instead, I go to the garden I made for you in my backyard. I go out there often and talk to you. Logan is graduating very soon and Oh how I wish you could be here. He has grown up to be a fine young man. You would be proud. Layne is just Layne! You would be so proud of him too. He is doing so well at basketball. I know how you loved to watch him play. I miss being able to call you for a recipe or just to tell you something crazy I did today. I will have lots to share with you when I come to meet you some day. I hope it is very soon. I love you so much. You left every positive impact on my life. I make a lot of choices based on what you would do. Thanks for being the best Mom ever making me who I am. I love you.Angie##imported-begin##Angie##imported-end##

Dear Richard and children, it is a very difficult day but we know that God is in control of all things. I have to believe that Glenda is in a much better place without sorrow or pain. Knowing this helped me get through those first days and months without Bob. The pain you feel now is great but we have our precious memories of a wonderful life together to comfort and get us through the long nights and days. You know I would be there if it was possible. I could drive it but Sunday I leave for Mexico for arthritis treatments. That would be too much driving for me. I'm getting too old to trapse all over the country by myself. Love to all of you and my prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Sandra Crim##imported-end##
