Former President Ronald W. Reagan

FEB 6, 1911 - JUN 5, 2004

At the end of his two terms in office, Ronald Reagan viewed with satisfaction the achievements of his innovative program known as the Reagan Revolution, which aimed to reinvigorate the American people and reduce their reliance upon Government. He felt he had fulfilled his campaign pledge of 1980 to restore "the great, confident roar of American progress and growth and optimism."

On February 6, 1911, Ronald Wilson Reagan was born to Nelle and John Reagan in Tampico, Illinois. He attended high school in nearby Dixon and then worked his way through Eureka College. There, he studied economics and sociology, played on the football team, and acted in school plays. Upon graduation, he became a radio sports announcer. A screen test in 1937 won him a contract in Hollywood. During the next two decades he appeared in 53 films.

From his first marriage to actress Jane Wyman, he had two children, Maureen and Michael. Maureen passed away in 2001. In 1952 he married Nancy Davis, who was also an actress, and they had two children, Patricia Ann and Ronald Prescott.

As president of the Screen Actors Guild, Reagan became embroiled in disputes over the issue of Communism in the film industry; his political views shifted from liberal to conservative. He toured the country as a television host, becoming a spokesman for conservatism. In 1966 he was elected Governor of California by a margin of a million votes; he was re-elected in 1970.

Ronald Reagan won the Republican Presidential nomination in 1980 and chose as his running mate former Texas Congressman and United Nations Ambassador George Bush. Voters troubled by inflation and by the year-long confinement of Americans in Iran swept the Republican ticket into office. Reagan won 489 electoral votes to 49 for President Jimmy Carter.

On January 20, 1981, Reagan took office. Only 69 days later he was shot by a would-be assassin, but quickly recovered and returned to duty. His grace and wit during the dangerous incident caused his popularity to soar.

Obituary

Former President Ronald W. Reagan

FEB 6, 1911 - JUN 5, 2004

Dealing skillfully with Congress, Reagan obtained legislation to stimulate economic growth, curb inflation, increase employment, and strengthen national defense. He embarked upon a course of cutting taxes and Government expenditures, refusing to deviate from it when the strengthening of defense forces led to a large deficit.

A renewal of national self-confidence by 1984 helped Reagan and Bush win a second term with an unprecedented number of electoral votes. Their victory turned away Democratic challengers Walter F. Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro.

In 1986 Reagan obtained an overhaul of the income tax code, which eliminated many deductions and exempted millions of people with low incomes. At the end of his administration, the Nation was enjoying its longest recorded period of peacetime prosperity without recession or depression.

In foreign policy, Reagan sought to achieve "peace through strength." During his two terms he increased defense spending 35 percent, but sought to improve relations with the Soviet Union. In dramatic meetings with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev, he negotiated a treaty that would eliminate intermediate-range nuclear missiles. Reagan declared war against international terrorism, sending American bombers against Libya after evidence came out that Libya was involved in an attack on American soldiers in a West Berlin nightclub.

By ordering naval escorts in the Persian Gulf, he maintained the free flow of oil during the Iran-Iraq war. In keeping with the Reagan Doctrine, he gave support to anti-Communist insurgencies in Central America, Asia, and Africa.

Overall, the Reagan years saw a restoration of prosperity, and the goal of peace through strength seemed to be within grasp.

Dear Mrs. Reagan and family, Please accept my sympathy at your loss. President Reagan will be missed by the nation and the world as a great leader but more by you as a husband and father. The first vote I ever cast in an election was for him and even though my tendencies are more Democratic in my older years, I am still proud to think of him as "my" president. The courage and grace shown by both of you when he was struck by the would-be assassin's bullet helped me remain strong in my fear for the future. I am very saddened by the loss of former President Reagan. I lost my daughter several years ago after a long struggle with Diabetes. I feel they both are now in a better place with no more suffering. Thank you, Mrs. Reagan, for your support of stem cell research. It is too late for our family members but not for those in the future. May God bless each of you.##imported-begin##Lue Cross##imported-end##

Sending my love and prayers to Nancy and all of our former President's Family. I loved Mr. Reagan. He was a man of Character and a blessing to our Country and all the world. I was very proud to know he grew up in the Christian Disciples of Christ Church, attended a Disciple College. It made me very proud when this was mentioned from the Pulpit Sunday at Longview's First Christian Church by our Dr. Jim Lewis. I cherish my Memories of President Reagan and want especially to say it was always uplifting to see him and Nancy and see her devotion to him. He had a special way of making everyone seem important and cared for. My hope is that his life and Christian Ideals will be told and written about so future generations will be able to know about him and his good life. God bless you, precious Nancy.##imported-begin##Millie Harper##imported-end##

We would like to say how much we appreciate the service of your husband and father to our great country. He will be remembered as one if not the greatest presidents of these United States. We know you are very sad at his death but you must be very proud of the leagacy he has left this country. We pray for peace that will come to you from our Lord Jesus Christ at this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##David &Jeri Chapman##imported-end##

To the Family of Former President Ronald Reagan --You are in our prayers and thoughts at this time, as you have been for the past 10+ years. I work with residents in long-term care facilities who have Alzheimer's. If only these people had loved ones who were able to handle the trials so graciously as your family. You and your husband have been a shining example to all the citizens of this World, not just to the United States. God has blessed your family so richly and in turn has blessed us with a "First Family" to serve as a shining example for us all. In God's Love, Bertha J. Parker Sharon P.
