We became special friends because of our shared diagnosis and we made a point to lift each other up and give each other a hug when we saw each other at work.I knew Lynette before, but because we walked the same walk, we had a close bond. I am not the only one with this story. Lynette made herself available to every GSMC employee who was challenged with breast cancer just as she had to me. She touched so many lives and gave so much encouragement and hope.She was much loved and she will be much missed.I will always love and remember Lynette.I hope and believe she is in Heaven right now having a wonderfull time, and waiting to welcome us, her family and friends, home.May God Bless and Keep YOu,Phyllis Bushers##imported-begin##Phyllis Bushers##imported-end##

Lynette was the first person to befriend me at GSMC. We frequently stopped and chatted about hospital events. I never saw her without a smile even when things were bad. She always had a smile and a positive word. I miss her much.##imported-begin##Steven Mitchell##imported-end##

We will miss Lynnette greatly. Since I hate needles and I mean hate, she would always calm my nerves down before giving me the shot and I "always" appreciated that. My sympathy and prayers go out to her family.##imported-begin##LYNN E GRUBER##imported-end##

Lynnette was my preceptor when I first came out of nursing school. She gave me a firm foundation in nursing. She was a wonderful nurse and a wonderful person. She made us laugh and we were all so proud of her when she finally went back to school and got her RN. Because I didn' work on campus I didn't get to stay in close contact, but I watched her fight her illness with such strength and grace. She had such an impact on my life and I will always remember her. God bless her family. You are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Jackie Weeks##imported-end##

Words alone cannot describe the person of Lynnette. She is everything good in life--kindness, loyalty, courage, strength, beauty, patience. She saw the good in others and went out of her way to help anyone with a need. She came along side others who fought cancer as she did. She never complained when she herself was hurting. She was truly amazing to all of us that were close to her and watched her journey. I hope you know what a truly wonderful lady she was. I will always miss her.##imported-begin##Esther Johnston##imported-end##

To Lynnette's Family...She was such a warm and caring person who always had a smile on her face and a kind word to say to everyone. She once commented to me that her goal was to see her daughter graduate from high school...her family was always foremost on her mind. She fought a hard battle with a courageous spirit. May you find comfort in the Lord and knowing that she is resting with Him.##imported-begin##Sue Dunn##imported-end##
