I thought perhaps Mr. Miller was one who worked at Farmer's Equipment Company in Gilmer with my father, Marshall Bivins, years ago. My father always spoke highly of him. My father passed away in October 2000 at the age of 95. May I express my sincere condolences to the family.##imported-begin##Ruby Ida Bivins Denton##imported-end##

Helen, wanted you to know you are on my Heart and in my prayers-you and your family. Just looking at J.C.'s name reminds me of Mr. JimmyMontgomery the finest Baptist Christian that ever lived-- THAT WAS WHAT I WOULD SAY ABOUT HIM IN HIS PRESENCE--I think it got away with him! Haven't seen you all in a long time but I still think of you and know I'll miss remembering your Anniversary and J.C.'s birthday. May God bless you and keep YOU in His care.##imported-begin##Millie Harper##imported-end##
