Mildred was my biggest cheerleader at the Longview News-Journal. When editors were on my back, or I felt down, she noticed and asked what was up. After a car wreck 10 years ago, she and Annie kept an eye on me, telling me I was walking better lately or bluntly asking why my limp was worse that day. Mildred gave a damn, and she wouldn't take crap from anyone, anyone. I like it that she's buried right where the shoplifters from Kroger hop the fence on the run, because Mildred is in the right spot to trip them. Her heart always was in the right spot, and now her spirit is home. She's not a pilgrim anymore, and I trust I'll see her and the rest of the true hearts when this pilgrimage is over.##imported-begin##Glenn Evans##imported-end##

I met Mildred over 6 years ago when I first moved to Longview and started work at LNJ. She was an instant friend and we shared many long talks and inside jokes. She always made me laugh. We had a mutual love of the outdoors and plants and she taught me so much. I could count on her to just listen when I needed that and did the same for her. She was a like a mom to me in a lot of ways and I will miss her so much. She loved her family very much and was worried about each of you. I wish you all peace of mind knowing she is in a better place and free from disease and pain. She will look down from Heaven as your guardian angel. Thank you for letting me take care of Lucky. I know it gave Mildred comfort to know she would be taken care of and it gives me comfort to go home and have her meet me at the gate every day, ready to play ball! God bless you all.##imported-begin##Leah##imported-end##

To the family of Mildred Alvey, I would like to say, that I did not get a chance to know Mildred very long, but in the time that I did get to know her I found out that she was a very nice person, and through it all, we became friends. I thank God for giving me an opportunity to meet her. She will be missed in our lives, she has touched so many of us in so many ways. I will never forget the last time I was in Texas, 2 weeks ago looking at the smile on her face as we visited and prayed together. I thank God for that. And to her childrens, God saw that you mom was getting tired, and he just whispered in her ear, and said, it's time to come home. Hold on to your memories, and lean on God, and he will carry you through.....LARRY SWEAZY & SHIRLEY CARTER###imported-begin##Larry Sweazy###imported-end##

TO THE FAMILY OF MILDRED, MAY GOD BE WITH YOU ALL. MILDRED WAS MY BEST FRIEND, AND SHE WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED IN MY HEART. SHE WAS ONE OF A KIND. WHEN SHE CAME INTO MY LIFE, IT WAS A BLESSING FROM GOD, TO BRING TO ME SUCH A TRUE AND DEAR FRIEND. SO TO BRENDA, MARGIE, RANDY AND LEO, YOUR MOM LOVED YOU MORE THAN LIFE. SHE OFTEN TALKED ABOUT THE LOVE FOR HER CHILDRENS, EVEN THROUGH HER SICKNESS. HOLD ON TO THE LOVE THAT YOU AND YOUR MOM CHERISHED TOGETHER, AND THE WONDERFUL MEMORIES OF LIFE THAT YOU ENDURED WITH EACH OTHER. EVEN IF YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND WHAT HAS HAPPEN RIGHT NOW, JUST TRUST IN GOD, AND HE WILL CARRY YOU THROUGH THIS. AND I PROMISE YOU THAT HE WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU OR FORSAKE YOU. My thoughts are with you at this difficult time. Mildred was a wonderful and caring person. When we would see "Trouble" pulling up in the parking lot, we always knew to get ready for whatever joke or crazy antic she was fixing to throw at us. There will be a huge void here at the newspaper without her laughter and her jokes! May God Bless you all!###imported-begin##Shaunda McDaniel###imported-end##
