So sorry to hear of Eva's death. I still look at their old place in Johntown each time I go by and miss her and Reg -- they always had such a pretty yard and garden. Will keep your family in our prayers. Sincerely, ##imported-begin##Mary Ann Vaughan Ward##imported-end##

Eva was a delightful Lady. My parents Chick & Gay Dryden always enjoyed visiting with Eva and Reg when they were in Johntown to visit Aunt Irene Hawkins Pew. And she was a dear friend to Aunt Irene. Our Prayers are with all of you. Freddy & Sissy ##imported-begin##Freddy & Sissy Stahl##imported-end##

We are sorry to hear of Mrs. Weisinger's death. She was a delight, we bought many a daylily and iris from her. She always had good gardening advice for us each time we visited. ##imported-begin##Elaine Morgan & Jamie Huddleston##imported-end##

We were all very sorry to hear the news about Eva. She was quite a lady and was a real boost to Johntown when y'all moved there. My mother is also in a nursing home here in Pittsburg at age 90 but still knows everything & is relatively well. Our family's prayers and hearts are with your family tomorrow.
