I am sorry for the loss of Mr. Watts. He was such a great friend to my Mother and Father, Joe and Betty Hudman. Now, he is up in heaven where he and my dad can take up where they left off. I am sure my Dad welcomed him home in heaven with open arms. I know this is a very hard time for all of you. I sure miss my Dad. It will be two years on May 20th and it just seems like yesterday. Please know you all are in our hearts and prayers. May you feel the presence of our Lord and Saviour at this difficult time. I can't make your hurt go away but, I can tell you I care. My Mother was not able to make it to the funeral and she regrets that. She is having a difficult time right now with her health issues. She is there with you all though in spirit. Love and May God bless you always, Cynthia Hudman Adams###imported-begin##Cynthia Hudman Adams###imported-end##
