I just learned with regret of Bernadine's passing. I have several fond memories of her, but especially her smiling face and her hearty laugh. I remember traveling with her and Ira to Denver where they put me on a train to go to Utah to work in a lumber camp. This was in 1947. I'm sure she was received with open arms at the Pearly Gates. Barbara, we are so sad at Bernadean's passing. Moreso, that we are unable to be there and offer our love directly. You know we loved her dearly. It was always a happy time to be with Bernadean. May God bless you and your family. Alvin and Diana.###imported-begin###Alvin & Diana Mayo###imported-end##
