My deepest and most sincere condolences to each of you. When we were kids, we always had a great time at the Hutto Reunions held in Carthage. I always looked forward to seeing Perry, Jerry, Aunt Ivadell, and Uncle Harrison. We made several trips a year to Joinerville to see them. Seems like we all grew up and went our separate ways. It seems like only yesterday. I will always have great memories of Perry and that's something death can't erase. Please give me a call 719/548-0670 if there's anything I can do.Bill Hutto360 E.
