Keli I love you so much. I am going to miss you more than words can say. All the good times we shared, going back & forth to Kilgore in Kyle's little truck! your visit to CA w/JerryMom, concerts, & so many other memories. You always made me and others around you smile & laugh. There will never be a kinder, gentler, more loving person than you, as the saying goes, "when God made you, he broke the mold." I know you will watch over us & I'll be looking up to you in the heavens. You are & forever will be my SISTER. I LOVE YOU! xoxoxo##imported-begin##Wendy Lee##imported-end##

Jerry, I am so sorry to hear about Keli. She was a wonderful person and it saddens me to know her light isn't shining any longer. She didn't deserve so much of what she got in life but no matter what she always had a smile for everyone. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Tina McGill##imported-end##

I met Keli about 17 years ago when she was along with Michelle and Jerry Mae visiting GC and Virginia Johnson in Albuquerque. Vicki and I spent only a few hours with her at the most. But I could see what a rare spirit she was---quick and witty with a wonderful lively sense of humor---and very pretty with her hair cut short on the sides and long in back. It was fun to be around her. Now that I can see how tender and vulnerable she must have been, I wish I had told her what a precious person she was.##imported-begin##Mike Raugh##imported-end##

Hey "Kel!" We miss you soooo much! Thank you for being the such a beautiful and special sister! Your precious spirit will always be with me, as it has become so dear to me. I will always remember the early morning when you got up by yourself to see me off to the Navy back in June '78. Now it is my honor to see you off on your way to the blessed "Rainbow Bridge." I know you have many, many friends waiting to see you and anxiously wanting to catch up on the old times. I can see it clearly, you will have so much fun! You are always in my heart "Kel," & I can't wait to see you again in Heaven. Take care, we will ALWAYS LOVE YOU and NEVER FORGET YOU! Missing you and looking forward to seeing you again! Love Always,- Keith##imported-begin##Keith, Rosemary, James, Ryan & Shawn##imported-end##

I hope you are with them now.You were so full of laughter and great affection for your family and friends. How tenderly you loved animals, be they ducks or dogs. You always found humor in your life, and your sharing of it brought us many smiles.With all your gifts, joys and energy, I wish life had been kinder to you. I will hold you in my heart, and your face, always young, too young, will be before me when I think of you.Goodbye, Keli, I love you. Vicki###imported-begin###Vicki Johnson###imported-end##

Keli was a very unique and caring individual. But thats what made her so special. I remember times we would sit and tell stories and laugh about the smallest things, not having a care in the world. If there were more people like Keli.... the world would be a happier place. Love you sister, Matt*###imported-begin###Matt Cole###imported-end##

Keli you will be missed i work with Keli few years and i treasure the memories and her beautiful smile that will light up the world. I often shared my faith in Jesus Christ with Keli and she was so open to listen and always thank me for sharing my faith with her. I know this life is a vapor compare to eternity, so when i see Keli again it will be forever, until then i remember her sweet smile, caring heart, her love of animals and her joy of walking outside on the trail with her dogs. For my Special "Sistah" K -I will always remember the laughs and good times that we have had - just this morning I was thinking of how silly we got as we were driving through "Goodnight Texas?" and looking for a hotel - with Mom shaking her head in the back seat. Keli - you have always looked up to me - but I think what you may have never realized is how much I looked up and admired you - your kind manner, your truthful soul, and your endearing spirit. You will always be with me in my heart. Your forver Sis - ShellP.S. - As Kyle requested - Check in on us now and then - we would enjoy that.###imported-begin##Michelle Klempin###imported-end##

I have many fond memories of Keli. She was quite the jokester, and I still laugh when I recall some of the jokes she played on me. She had a beautiful spirit and a great sense of humor. But I think Keli's compassion was her greatest gift. She didn't care for material possessions and spent any extra money she had to buy dog food and supplies for the local animal shelter. If she could have given a home to every homeless dog, she would have. Keli was also a loyal friend who saw the best in everyone, and she will be deeply missed by all who knew her.##imported-begin##Erin Gaines##imported-end##

Keli was everything a neighbor could hope for. She was kind and caring and genuinely interested in other people. A very rare commodity in this day. We lost more than a neighbor on Sunday, we lost a sweet, sweet friend. But our loss is Heaven's gain. We ache for her mother and her siblings but we rejoice in the fact that we know she has gone Home. And we do not rejoice alone. For we know that the angels rejoice as they welcome her home.###imported-begin###Edmonson Family###imported-end##

The thing I remember most about Keli is her sweet smile. She was always friendly, also a little shy. I also remember how much she loved and enjoyed her pets. She will be missed greatly by her precious mother, Jerry Mae, as well as all her siblings and family. WE will never have to worry about Keli again, we know the Lord Jesus loves her more than we can imagine. He has promised there is nothing that can separate us from His love, Romans 8:35. May her family find comfort and peace in Him.
