What a dear and gracious lady Dorothy was. She was loyal, caring and humorous. Even through difficult times she maintained her positive outlook. It was my privilege to be her and Frank's trust officer in the 70s and 80s. It was a genuine joy to serve them##imported-begin##Gary D. Brown##imported-end##

Aunt Dorothy and Uncle Frank were the most wonderful influences anyone could imagine. I loved visiting them as a child at 9 Covington Drive and meeting all of their friends. Aunt Dorothy's honesty, easy quips, and constant energy are permanently etched in my childhood memories. Also, my mother and father, Jack and Winkie Stroube, forever told stories of Aunt Dorothy chaperoning them when in grade school to the movies in Corsicana. She is the original "Grande Dame" and still an inspiration. The best part of Derrick Days was seeing and visiting with Aunt Dorothy.##imported-begin##Mary Stroube Adams##imported-end##

My heart and prayers are with all of you. May memories console you in your very difficult days ahead. When I was there last week, I was saddened to know it would be the last time I would see her...but then I thought of God's promise of a home after this life. We have many happy memories of Dorothy McNally and her husband Frank. Her daughter Mary and son-in-law John Murphy and granddaughter Linda were and are dear friends and acquaintances from Bobby's and John's Naval careers. Dorothy and Frank would visit at Moffett Field, CA and we would all enjoy dinners and get-togethers and cooking lessons given by Dorothy. I remember my Great Aunt Dorothy as a kind and generous individual. I remember spending time during my summer vacation, while in grade school, at her home with her grandchildren and my cousins, Mike and Linda. I remember her often speaking about our Scottish heritage and how proud she was to be from Scottish descent. She was a loving and caring individual who I will truly miss. Her time on this earth was greatly appreciated by those to whom she touched. I am proud to be associated with the Lorimer legacy and truly regret her passing.
