Mrs. Seale: My dear sweet sister in Christ. The Apostle Paul encourages us to be confident in this very thing: that He has begun a good work in you and will continue it until the day of Christ Jesus. On May the 26th, 2007, Doug got to see our beloved Jesus. Our Father has finished His work in Doug. Be very thankful for this; for it is a blessing--and a gift--for you and your children. But Jannine, He has begun a good work in you too. Cling to that promise and to Him always. He will never leave nor forsake you, for this I can offer personal testimony. Thank you for being Doug's wife and the mother of his children. I will continue to pray for you and yours. Now is the time for you to rest in His loving arms and let Him carry you. I remain confident of His good work. And you, my sister, just rest.##imported-begin##Rhonda Pope##imported-end##

We were very saddened to hear the news about Doug. In our "younger days" we hung out with Doug quite a bit at some of the local "hang outs". He always had a smile on his face and knew how to make you have a good time. I know he will be missed by many. May God Bless you and your family and we will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers daily.
