So sorry to hear about Mavis' death. I actually talked to her a few months ago and we sent a few e-mails back & forth. It was so nice to catch up a bit after so many years having lapsed. We really had a lot of good times together-chased lots of boys-swam at your M&D's house on Cherokee Lake-and lots of youth events at church etc. I was hoping to see her and everyone else some time soon in Longview. I have lots of wonderful memories about the rest of your family especially your dad - a wonderful Christian dad - like my dad. May God bless.
