Dear Debbie, I would like to extend my sincerest condolences. I always liked Fred alot. He was a strict man and a stong sense of what of believed in. Now that I have children of my own I understand how strong and firm you have to be in those beliefs. I grew to respect him a great deal as I became an adult and the few times I was able to see him, he was always warm and kind and was very sweet to me. He had a very sweet smile and I will remember him fondly. I am truly sorry for the pain you must be going through. You are a strong woman and I believe God will help you make it through this time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. With much love, Stephanie Southerland and James Kuler###imported-begin##Stephanie & James Kuler###imported-end##

Dear Debbie and Family,As your all aware, Fred has been my mentor and true friend for over 20 years. We have shared so many stories together, about us growing up, raising our children, and then our grandchildren. He treated my sons as if they were his own, and by example made them the Peace Officers they are today. How can a person put into words the loss of a husband, father, grandfather and best friend. All I can say is my heart is broken and I ask God to put this pain and grief into his hands.Happiness keeps you sweetTrails keep you strongSorrows keep you humanFailures keep you humbleSucess keeps you glowingBut, ONLY GOD KEEPS YOU GOING.Johnny, Kris, Justin, Brandon and Micah Davidson##imported-begin##Johnny L.
