There are so many things we could write about Mary. She was the most generous and giving person we have ever known. She truly loved the Lord and wanted everyone to be saved. She did so much for us and our family that are too numerous to write. We loved her dearly. We have many remembrances of the enjoyment we had with her and Dick. Mary was such a dear friend. I was so saddened when I heard of her illness. She will be missed by many. I met Mary when I went to work at Colonial Village. We have kept in touch since I left in 2003. She truly did love the Lord and was a bold witness for Him! My prayers and thoughts are with the family. Randy and Joanna Gunter of Marshall also wish to offer their condolences to the family. They were also part of the Colonial Village Family.##imported-begin##Carolyn Rowden##imported-end##
