When I was 11 Jerry Van Inscore abandoned his children from his first marriage. Never paid the child support and left the state to avoid prosecution. I am the person he made me, I took his bad example and became the father I wish I had. I raised my son by myself and saw to it that he had the things he needed to become a better person than me, just like I became a better person than my father. I regret finding out about his death so many years after the fact only because it was not me to show him out of this world. Michael Inscore 5/28/2015

Dear Sandy, We are so sorry for your loss. I know it is a difficult time for you and may God richly bless you in your time of sorrow. We're praying for the 'peace' that only God can provide. Cherry says stop by her home for a visit when in Kerens sometimes. She lives right next door in the brick house where they have lived forever. Dear Sandy, Joy and I were deeply saddened to hear about Jerry. Even though I never got up the courage to come over and visit, he was always in my heart and prayers. I know like my Dad, he is in a better place and not suffering. It is just hard to say good-bye. I just wanted to say how sorry I am for your loss and ours and to say that you will be in our thoughts and prayer's. Love, Jeff##imported-begin##Jeff B. Freeman##imported-end##
