JUSTIN...I really do not have enough room on this page to write to you what i wish that i could say. you and i started our adventure at the young ages of 15 and 16, i always had a love for you like no other..we later had a beautiful baby together, which i am very proud to say is looking more like you everyday. Our son will ALWAYS know what a wonderful caring person you were and how much you loved him. I wish i could explain everything to him when he asks me where you are, but i would be lying if i pretended like i understood myself why this had to happen to you. I wish I did. I wish that you were able to be here to just give me one more hug and kiss, I hope you knew what you always meant to me. I LOVE YOU NOW, ALWAYS HAVE, AND ALWAYS WILL. Justin, I wanted to say how much I miss you. You were my baby brother, but it always seemed like you were taking care of me. Anytime I needed anything, it didn't matter what it was or what time of day, you would always be there for me and my kids. I have so many memories of us growing up together and how well you turned into a fine young man. You were an awesome father and I promise that I will never let Peyton grow up not remembering you. You always had your camera ready and took hundreds of pictures of him. Everyone knew how much you loved your "little man" and how much he loves you. I am hurting so bad because you are not here with us, but I know you are watching over us. I miss you so much and I will love you forever. Thank you for being such a great brother to me.##imported-begin##Miranda Broad##imported-end##

I remember Justin from the early 1990's as the little brother to Jamie and Miranda. We would go over to thier house off of Silver Falls Road in Pine Tree after church sometimes. At the time, they attended New Beginnings Baptist Church in Spring Hill, along with Blake Lambert and Chad Crouch. He was younger than us, but I do remember him wanting to be a part of what we were doing, and especially how he was following not too far behind whatever Jamie and Miranda were doing. God's strength and love be with you, along with the prayers of many. Billy D. McBride##imported-begin##Billy Don McBride##imported-end##

A few months ago, Justin installed some HDTVs for me. He later came back and installed a DVD player and programmed some remotes. He was such a polite, nice young man. Very kind, soft spoken, and from things he told me, I know he was very proud of, and loved his son. He also told me how he had hooked up a new TV with remotes for his mom and dad. I could tell he really loved them, too. I was so sorry to hear of his accident. The world was better for his having been here. That is success.##imported-begin##barbara##imported-end##
