I seat here today thinking how it been six years since you been gone. There is not a day that don't go by that i don't stop and cry thinking of you and mom.I can't go on the hill no more all of it is gone. I am sorry I wasn't there when you passed. I try so hard to get there so fast when I was called. I got so mad cause I thought someone was playing a joke on me.I hope you can forgive me. We always promised each other we always be there. I feel as if I failed you and mom by leaving the hill.I still have the letter mom sent me about how sad you were, and how she felt like it was good for me to spread my wings. I am sorry I wasnt there to protect you and mom.I ask god all the time to tell you and mom I love you both. I ask God why this happen to the people I love and miss and needed in my life so much. I know that you were there when I crashed my motorcycle, I felt you and God and I saw alot of pictures flash before me of you and me and mom and my family.I miss how I could tell you everything, I miss calling you and hearing your voice. I miss how both of us would drop what we were doing to help each other.I know alot of people miss you and you were in so many people life, but no one will ever know how much or how close me and you and mom were.Meaghan trys to comfort me when I cry for you and mom, she tells me to stop looking at you and mom pictures that i got to learn to find peace with what has happen. But I can't.When mom died I couldnt go to the funeral I couldn't handle it Connie, it was too much for me. Tell mom I loved her but after losing you and then her it tore me apart. You both have taken half my heart when you left this earth. I know that everyone says your in a better place and your with God. But I am selfish and want you both back, I will never have a friend or sister like you, I have try so hard to find someone to be that friend and sister that you were to me. I will write again I promise. I love you and please tell mom I love her too.Keep watching over me, Keep standing beside me cause I can feel you both.love alwasg and forever,Brandy###imported-begin###Brandy Glasscock###imported-end##

My darling daughterToday one year later and I still miss you so much.I will always keep you in my heart. I miss so muchAll the things we used to do together. The fun and Cutting up we did. I was so blessed I had such a closeBond with you. You may have left this earth young But I feel I lived twice the years we shared. I wasLucky enough to spend so much time with you. NotMany mothers are as blessed as I was to have youIn my life. God blessed me with the child of my heart.You are my treasure. One day I will join you in heavenWhere there is no more pain and suffering. And we willShare joy eternally.Your loving motherAnne AddisonDec 20th 2008###imported-begin###Anne Addison###imported-end##

My Dear Niece,I have been silent for a year now. I could not find the words to describe how much I miss you. Everyday you are in my thoughts. Often times when I'm trying to figure something out, I think about how you loved to contribute to what ever it was I was doing at that moment. Thank you for loving me!Connie, I thank you for always making me feel special. You were always proud of me.I'm proud of you too! Most importantly, thank you for the gift you shared with me over the phone about your salvation a couple of weeks before you went to be with God. I'm so happy that you were given that time in your life to discover the most precious gift of all!! thank thee Father GOD for the blessings you bring us all.Thank you Father GOD for my Niece Constance. She will always be a part of me.I praise you Lord; thank you for salvation.Precious to me are the below verses from the King James Bible:Psalm 119:10-1210. With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments. 11. Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.12. Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.Connie, we will meet with you in glory some great day!! love you!Uncle David Cooper###imported-begin##David Cooper###imported-end##

To my niece Connie.. Your passing came as such a shock since I had spoken with you just a few days prior. I am so blessed to have had that last conversation with you, in which you told me that you had gotten right with the Lord. God is so good. What a joy to know that we will see each other again someday for all eternity. Until we meet again in Heaven,All my love, your Aunt LindaJOHN 3 16###imported-begin##Linda Jolley###imported-end##

High on that mountain There is a mountain that is so high but hard to climb. But we all reach for the Mountain. But we go through the deep valleys. I am at the valley deep within. That mountain seems so high and so hard to reach. I look up and the mountain Seems so far away. But each day I take one step at a time as I walk out of the Valley. I'm walking towards the base of that mountain. I cry out to my heavenly Father God. He walks with me in the valley. He shows me the way to the base Of that big mountain I need to climb. I take each day as it comes. The tears come And I morn for the loss of my beloved daughter who has now left me to be with My heavenly father. The mother in me cries out for my child of my heart. I shared So much with her. She was my best friend. My daughter. She could fix so many Things. More than anything I know she loved me as I loved her. I ask my self at Times how do I go on? I know how I go on its by my father God. And Jesus Christ his son. God knows the pain my heart is in for he had to watch his son Be beat to the point no man could recognize his face. How that hurt God the father To watch his son be beat and treated so bad. How my God suffered to see his Only begotten son die for our sins so we may be saved. So how much more did My God suffer than us. He made us in his image to serve him. I greave for my Connie I miss her so much. I miss the laughter we shared. How we would have Fun together. My love for her will never die until God calls me home. But I try To remember the wonderful times I had with Connie. How blessed I am as the Mother of Connie. We had good and bad times but we always hugged each other And said forgive me and said I love you. How I miss her loving arms as she Hugged me. The way she smelled so clean and fresh. How I long for her hug and The sweet smell of my child. I hold her shirt to my nose sometimes just to smell The sweet smell left behind. I loved her so much and will always love her. How Blessed I was to have had the child of my heart. God granted me a wonderful Gift when he gave me Connie. Now he holds her in his loving arms. One day I will see her again and hug her and tell her again how much I love her. Until That day comes Connie will stay in my heart. Forever loving her. An Angel in Heaven: Connie is still my angel in life. I met Connie in 2001 when I went to live with her and her Mother Anne. Connie took me in when I was homeless with no place to go along with her mom. Through the years she became my angel in life. Such a loving caring lady. She was vibrant, full of live and love. I praise God she found him before her passing, and I know one day that I will see her again when he takes me home to be with him. Here is a tribute to Connie Angel as you went home when you life here on earth was done, I know you are still with me in my thoughts, prayers and daily life. Rod and I look up at the sky at night and see you shining down upon us. Know that we love you. Vickie and Rod##imported-begin##Victoria Caulder##imported-end##

For the love of my life I'm so glad that God gave me the gift of my heart. My daughter Connie. I was blessed to have spent almost 31 yrs with her. Loving her completed My life. God gives us our children as a gift to love and watch over until He calls them home. He called her home and I'm so blessed and grateful God gave me all the years with her. She wasn't only my daughter but she was my best friend. The days are empty without her love around me. But I gave her all my love as a mom. I can say I know without a doubt she loved me as I loved her. Connie was blessed with so many talents. She was always there for anyone who needed her help and loving support. No matter if she was in pain just would just suck it up and do what needed to be done. Connie was a loving daughter to me she worried over me. What a blessing a mother can have is knowing how much your child loved you. She gave me her all. She will always be the child of my heart that God gave me. I can't say enough about Connie I miss her so much. I miss Connie saying, going to bed mama. I answered yes baby and then she would say goodnight mama I love you and I would tell her the same I love you baby. I miss saying that and hearing her say I love you mama. Connie my child I will always love you I will never let a day go by without thinking of you. You will always be the love of my life. God took you home to be with him on December the 20th 2007. My love for you my precious daughter is never ending. I love you MaMa Anne January 26th 2008##imported-begin##Anne Addison##imported-end##

Everyone keeps saying that CJ is in a much better place, and I don't doubt that for a minute....but I miss her being here. I miss her so much. Not one day has went by that she isn't on my mind throughout the day and night. If I could only see that dimpled smile just one more time. It is so comforting to know that I "will" see that precious smile when I make it up there where there is no more pain and heartache. But until then CJ, you will ALWAYS be right here in my heart...right where you've been since the day we met. I absolutely agree with others'. She had 2 of the best parents a person can have. My heart hurts for them and the rest of her family that I know loved her so much. She had so many friends...good friends. Long-time friends, because she was such a good friend to them as well, and my heart breaks for them too. She touched so many lives....but I haven't been the same since she touched mine. I love you CJ. I miss you. See you when I get there sweetie! Tammi##imported-begin##Tammi##imported-end##

Connie, This week feels like it will never end. I have drifted along in a daze leaving behind a trail of tears and basking in the blessed memories I have of you, my dearest gal pal. If I learned anything from you it was what friendship is all about. Over the last 10 years you and I have laughed, cried, loved and died, but I never though it would be you taken from my life so soon. I thought I would always have you as my pilar, holding me up when I was weak and straightening me out when I needed a good talking to. I know you never turned your back on me once in all the time we were friends. I don't think you ever turned your back on anyone because it wasn't your nature. I was relieved you hear you account of Heaven. I know you are there waiting on all of us. And I hope my mansion is near yours. I will love you forever Free Bird.
