Jane: After being friends for over 50 years, it is hard to think of Wayne being gone. Although our friendship was one separated by miles, we always felt very close to you both. Our family always looked forward to the Fahle visits. Wayne was someone that was "bigger than life". May all the wonderful memories of your life together give you the strength you need at this time. We know the Lord is with you now as he is with Wayne. Our prayers are with you. Pete and Shirley##imported-begin##Pete and Shirley Hanson##imported-end##

Jane, my prayers are with you, the boys and their families in this very difficult time. Although Wayne had a lengthy illness, from my experience, we are still not ready to let them go. Although I remember you both from the Lubbock days, I am so glad I got to know you from a different perspective while you lived in Beaumont. Marjean and Bill have dreaded this time, as I suppose you two are the very closest, of all their friends. Eventually, the memories will be good ones, and will make you smile. At least, that has been my experience. My love to all of you, Micki Carpenter##imported-begin##micki carpenter##imported-end##

Dear Jane and Family: You and Wayne have been such a pillar in our church. Wayne's messages from the pulpit on several occasions during these past 30 some years were always a lesson on life to me. I always made sure that I was in attendance on those Sundays in which he filled in. I am truly blessed to have had the friendship of your family. Wayne will be very missed. I am sorry that I will be out of town tomorrow for the service. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Much Love, Suzanne Cross##imported-begin##Suzanne Cross##imported-end##
