Proverbs 3:5-6 is etched on a small rock that Mr. Dupree gave to each of us in our Sunday School class that he taught my senior year in high school. I still have that rock! Mr. Dupree made us laugh, taught us a lot about God's word and let us know how much he loved us. He touched many lives and will be missed. I am thankful that I had the privilege to know him and to be loved by him. I pray that God will comfort his family as they grieve his loss. Our loss is heaven's gain. Across the miles with love,##imported-begin##Jennifer Baldwin Stonecipher##imported-end##

The world is a little bit darker without his smile today. My heart goes out to the family that he loved so much. Take comfort that he is where he most wanted to be, with his Lord. Wendy & Scott Snow

So many memories! What a great friendship we had. We felt like your whole family was our family because that's the way they treated us. I know that George is in heaven right now making all our loved ones who are there laugh, just as he did us. We love you. dean & kay morrison

It will seem very strange to write my Veteran's Day thank-you email without including you. I am happy, however, that you knew I appreciated your service to our country. I will always appreciate that. A lot of things will seem strange without you, but I know you're happy and at peace, and probably telling everyone about Trav's baseball game. Thank you for "adopting" me so readily into the family, and thank you for being my "Uncle" Geo. Tonti

We love you and will miss you. Just sitting here thingking all day, and the best things just keep popping in my head. Like, the first time i was taught that potates were grown under ground was from you, when you let me pull one up. And the way you made all the silly boys put there hands in bull-nettle after they made this little girl put her hand there, i might have been 4 and now i am 30, Thanks for all the Great Memories i will never forget them, Love Jen.##imported-begin##Jenifer Edwards Sanders##imported-end##
