Marjorie Coe Presley

JUL 7, 1920 - JUL 11, 2008

Marjorie Coe Presley was born July 7, 1920 in Gilmer, Texas and died Friday, July 11th. A memorial service will be held at First Christian Church in Longview, at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, July 14th under the direction of Rader Funeral Home, Longview.

Marjorie, a Baylor University graduate, was a gifted pianist, church organist and music teacher, and served on the board of the Longview Symphony.

In addition to her musical accomplishments, she was a passionate dealer in fine antiques.

She was an active member of the Heritage Bible Study Club, the Camellia Garden Club and First Christian Church.

She is survived by her husband of 66 years, J.F. Presley and four children – Beverly Calhoun and husband Tom, Jim Presley and wife Terry, Jane Grant and husband Bill, and Sara Welborn. Also surviving her are grandchildren Kirk Calhoun, Clark Presley, Chris Presley and Kent Welborn, and six great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by two grandsons, Allen Calhoun and Clay Calhoun.

The family thanks Beacon Hospice, Charlotte Huffhines and Madge Penny for their special care.

Dearest JimFred, Just today we learned of Margie's passing. Please know how sorry LouAnn, Steve & I are for not being there for you & your family as you & Margie were there for us when Daddy & Mom passed. We have so many wonderful Presley-Sigler memories from Lakeway & bluebonnet trips & 1st Church & Margie's glorious music. Margie taught us all how to live with strength & grace. We are truly blessed to have had her touch our lives. Much love to you & your family, Kayte, Lou Ann & Steve Sigler

Dear Mr. Presley, Jim, Beverly, Jane, and Sara--Bill and I were very sorry that we were out of town and couldn't attend the memorial service on Monday. I have so many, many fond Crescent Drive memories, and your family is a special part of many of those. What a kind and talented lady she was. Mrs. Presley always had a warm smile and hug for me, and I will always fondly remember her-and your family. love, Susan##imported-begin##Susan Gardner##imported-end##
