James Jason Lade

Funeral services for James Jason Lade, of Longview, will be at 2 p.m. on Monday, September 22, 2008, at Mobberly Baptist Church, with the Reverend Bob Waldman and Dr. Glynn Stone officiating. Graveside services will follow at Lakeview Memorial Gardens. Arrangements are by Rader Funeral Home of Longview.

He went to join his Father In Heaven on Thursday, September 18, 2008.

Jason was born in Tyler, Texas. He graduated from Frankston High School and Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration. He made his home in Longview and was a prudent businessman who loved the challenge of new business opportunities. On April 9, 2005, Jason married the love of his life, Kelsey Leann Rae. He was blessed with a beautiful daughter, Kinsey Alexandra Lade, on November 2, 2007.

Jason loved his family. He delighted in family gatherings and was often the last to leave. Jason also loved his friends. A sports lover, he often invited all of his friends over to barbeque and watch whatever sporting event he could find. He lived to make the people he cared for happy, especially his wife and daughter. Jason loved to hunt and fish, cars and drag racing, his dogs, and celebrating life in general. He had an infectious smile and laugh. His greatest joy in life was watching his daughter grow and learn new things.

Jason was preceded in death by his grandfather, James William Lade Sr., of Frankston, TX.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife of 3 years, Kelsey Lade, and daughter, Kinsey Lade, of Longview; his father, James William Lade Jr. and wife Cherylyn of Frankston; his mother, Connie Brannon Kitchen and husband Allen Kitchen, of Hallsville; brothers Jeremy Lade

Jason is the oldest of my precious sons. As a very unique, intelligent, funny, positive minded person, who always knew just what to do... Jason has always been the brightest star ...and he shined a bright light for us all...which came directly from our Lord Jesus Christ. I love him so very much. There are no words for the joy that he still brings to my heart, and the hearts of so many. He and his brothers and our very close family and friends are my heart. I want to thank everyone for loving my son. I especially want to thank his loving wife and child which he said made him the most blessed man who ever lived...and Jason LIVED...and lives on in the arms of Jesus. I love you Jason...and all of you who love Jason. God bless you all in Jesus name from the most blessed mom in the world. Kelsey, Girl Girl... How do I even start to tell you how much you & your lil angel are loved while you are going through this! You guys will continue to be in my prayers as will the entire Lade family for the strength and comfort you will need to get through this. Words will never be able to comfort you, but your faith in Jesus will find you with the strength you never knew you had, and everytime you look in that lil angel's eyes you will find a soothing calmness knowing that a part of Jason is here with you everyday! He was a very kind person and will be missed very much. Know that anyone he ever came in contact with, will never forget him! I wished we could have all gotten together more than we did, but just know that I love you guys and if you need me, you know how to reach me! ~Luvs & Hugs~ Tena Jones##imported-begin##Tena Jones##imported-end##
