I am so saddened to hear this news. Jeff and I went to Forest Park Middle School together. He and his dad often took me to school. The one thing I remember most about Jeff was his ability to laugh! He would make jokes and have the entire room in hysterics in a matter of minutes. Although I have not seen Jeff in many years, I am still overwhelmed by emotion when I heard this news. He will be missed and I will pray for his family.##imported-begin##Leslie Walters Allen##imported-end##

From the first time I met Jeff the first thing that I noticed was the smile. Jeff lived with us for a couple of years when Jeff was having a tough time in life. There are a lot of good things that need to be said about Jeff. He was always very courteous, yes sir, no sir, could do the work of 3 men, willing to help at anytime, very caring about others and never met a stranger. If you were to call him in the middle of the night he would be there to help as soon as he could get his clothes on. The world is a better place with Jeff being here for 33 years. From the time he first met Gloria a special glow came over his face that you couldnt wipe off. When the kids were born he was on cloud nine. He was a very special friend and was like a brother to our son Todd. We will truly miss him and pray that God will give Gloria the strength to go forward from this point. He loved Gloria, the kids, his family and his friends. He was a great husband and a wonderful father. He was one of a kind. We will miss him terribly. He was like part of our family. YOUR LOSS BRINGS SUCH PAIN AND SORROW BECAUSE OF THE JOY AND FRIENDSHIP THAT YOU BROUGHT TO PEOPLE. I KNOW FIRST HAND THAT YOU WERE A GREAT FRIEND TO PEOPLE BECAUSE YOU TOUCHED MY NEPHEW TODD AND MY BROTHER RON IN WAYS THAT NO ONE ELSE HAD. I WISH THAT I WOULD HAVE TOLD YOU THAT BEFORE BUT SEEING HOW YOU ACTED WHEN YOU WERE WITH THEM IT WAS VERY OBVIOUS THAT YOU ALL HAD A SPECIAL RELATIONSHIP.MAY YOUR MEMORY CONTINUE TO COMFORT BOTH OF THEM.##imported-begin##RICK CRAIG##imported-end##
