Dear Family,I am so sorry to hear of Miranda's passing. I have followed Miranda's struggles and triumphs through CaringBridge and her strength and upbeat attitude and outlook always amazed me. It appeared throughout her battle that she was lifting us with hope and strength rather than us lifting her. She was a true testimony of a Godly woman to those that were blessed to know her in this lifetime. I know you will miss her so much but take comfort in knowing that you will see her again.##imported-begin##Kirk and Sheila Haddix##imported-end##

Words can not express the loss we have all faced when Miranda left this earthly world. She was the rare exception of what true Godly love was all about, and anyone who was lucky enough to have an opportunity to meet her understands that. This is a truly tragic loss. To the Mayes and Gregg families, my wife and I want you to know we are in constant prayer for healing and understanding. To Jason, my dear friend, I extend myself to you as well, and will do anything that you ask of me, as my heart cries out for you for your loss. I will always remember Miranda dearly, and never will a day go by that I forget how she made some aspect of my life that much more special. You will truly be missed.

Dear Greggs, Mom,Dad,Haley & Taylor,Larry & I are soooo grieved over the passing of this precious young lady. We are thankful for the privelege of watching her grow in the Lord as a youth through Sunday School and Camp at Mobberly. Also how blessed we were to find she would be Meredith's roommate at A&M!! She has touched our lives in many ways in past years. We pray that the God of all comfort will surround you with His love and with people who love you and can minister that comfort from the Lord. She was a blessing to those that knew her and I know her life will continue to be a testimony to draw others to Himself. Our prayers are with you and with Jason and his family as well.##imported-begin##Larry & Diane Wilson##imported-end##

Don, Michele, Haley and Taylor We were so sorry to hear the news of Miranda. Our family all shared the news of her passing with tremendous sadness. She was such a sweet girl and we remember fondly all the wonderful memories of your family living across the street from us. Courtney and Miranda had such a special friendship and always had fun when they were together. We have been looking at some pictures of the two of them back in high school acting silly! Please know your family and Jason will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers in the difficult days ahead.##imported-begin##Bruce & Rosalin Collier##imported-end##
