Sandra Kay Curry

OCT 20, 1945 - DEC 1, 2008

S ANDRA KAY CURRY

Sandra Kay Curry, 63, went to be with her Lord and Savior at home while surrounded by family and friends. She fought a courageous battle against a lengthy illness. She was a wonderful wife, mother, "Maw", aunt and sister. She was blessed.

She was in the band and was a drum major at Marshall High School and graduated in 1964. While in high school, she met the love of her life, Harry, at the skating rink. She won him with a smile and a wink—true love. They were united in marriage October 16, 1964.

She enjoyed gardening and yard work. She loved to ride horses and take buggy rides with Harry. After graduation and marriage, Sandra went to a local beauticians school. Sandra had two children, Michael and Marcia. She raised them up in the ways of God and loved and supported them as they reached for their goals in life. She was an active member of Trinity Baptist Church where she sang in the choir and taught children's Sunday School for many years. She was a faithful servant.

Sandra worked for the Hallsville I.S.D. for 23 years in food services. "Maw" had four grandchildren and loved to attend their activities even through her illness. She was sustained by the tender care and love from her husband, family, and friends.

Sandra was preceded in death by her parents, James Rade and Martha Nix and her husband, Harry. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Beckie Curry of Hallsville; her daughter and son-in-law, Marcia and Michael Oxsheer of Hallsville; her grandchildren, Danielle Curry, Nick Curry, Mason Oxsheer and Luke Oxsheer; her sister and brother-in-law, Barbara and Vernon Weaver of Longview; a niece and her husband, Debbie and Craig Schluter of Omaha, Texas and her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Larry Curry, June Dyke, Jan Turner, and James Curry.

Michael and Marcia, Over the past few years, I have watched you all take such good care of your parents. I admire and respect you both so much. I know the past few years have been hard, but you all have shown an enormous amount of love and devotion to your parents. My family and I continue to miss Harry and we all loved Sandra so much. Your parents had two of the best children that any parent could ask for. I love both of you and I will continue to pray for you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Lisha Curry##imported-end##

Michael and Marcia, It is very difficult for me to express my feelings on an open type forum where other people read them. But, here goes! While at the funeral home on Thursday evening, I couldn't help but remember all the times that Sandra and Harry "rescued" June and I when we were kids and teens- from crazy horses and minibike mishaps to tomboy tendencies and hair havoc. Our hair was always stringy and wouldn't keep a curl, but Sandra was determined that she could change that. She gave us many perms! And for a few days we would be "gorgeous." Of course, they rescued us many other times that you guys will never be able to know or understand, but we will never be able to forget. Most importantly, we will never forget your beautiful parents, my brother and sister-in-law, and the godly way they faced the challenges that life presented them. Oh, that I might have, "a fraction of Sandra's faith", too. I love you both, Aunt Jan##imported-begin##Jan##imported-end##

Dear Precious Michael and Marcia...My feeble attempt at words, can never express the love & admiration I feel for you all... Harry and Sandra deeply loved their family and you have inherited this admirable attribute....You both have provided for them in their times of need in an outstanding fashion and have been excellent examples of loving devoted children...and at the same time facing many other challenges...Together, with God's help, much family and friends, you have completed the long and difficult journey with much integrity for which my dear brother, Harry so much wanted to complete himself....you pick-up where he left off and marched on valiantly....thus he has completed his course through you....Oh, the beauty of loving devotion out weighs all the sorrows....My heart felt prayers will continue be with you both,your precious children, Barbara, Vernon and family and of course dear Larry and Emily...Please know you are loved...Aunt June###imported-begin##Aunt June###imported-end##
