Rebecca Jane Wilson Chamberlain

AUG 18, 1960 - DEC 18, 2008

Services for Rebecca Jane Wilson Chamberlain, 48, of Gilmer will be 12 Noon Monday, December 22, 2008 in the Chapel of Rader Funeral Home with Donny Chamberlain officiating. Services are under the direction of Rader Funeral Home of Longview. Burial will follow in Reed Cemetery in Diana. The family will receive friends Sunday evening from 6-8 PM at the funeral home.

The Lord opened his loving arms to Rebecca Jane at 5:57 PM Wednesday, December 17, 2008 at Parkland Hospital Burn Unit in Dallas. Rebecca was transferred there on Tuesday following an explosion and fire in Longview. Becky was born on August 18, 1960 at Elmendorf AFB in Anchorage Alaska to SP. AGT. Edward Hall Boyd and Frances Dry Boyd. Becky was welcomed home by her sister, Holly Ann and brother, Casey Scott, and in 1966, her sister Victoria joined the family. By the time Becky was school age, her father had retired from active duty and the Boyd children were schooled in Mt. Clemens, Michigan, Waco, Texas, Mt. Vernon, Illinois, and in Longview, Texas at Pine Tree. Becky worked with Cooper Optical for 10 years, and with NCIC Communications in 2006, and then went to work for Jerry Gaston Commercial Painters in 2008. She was married to Don C. Wilson on November 26, 1983, and they were blessed with 3 precious daughters, Kaitlin, Laurin and Madalin. On August 8, 2008, Becky and Chris Chamberlain were married in Gilmer and they honeymooned at Eureka Springs. They made their home in Gilmer with Madalin. Becky was preceded in death by her father; her favorite Aunt Jane and Uncle Okey; and long time friend Scut Titus.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband, Chris and mother-in-law GiGi Chamberlain; the loves of her life, her daughters, Kaitlin, Laurin and Madalin Wilson and their father, Don Wilson; mother, Frances Boyd; sisters, Holly Horton, Victoria Jurenka; brother Casey Boyd; brother-in-law, Clay Jurenka; nieces and nephews, Ashley Stanley Carter; great nephew Caine Stanley of Kilgore, Whitney Wilson, Jesse

It still doesn't seem possible. It doesn't make sense. She was and is my Sister, my best friend. She was a part of me and I am broken. When I want to be close to her I go outside and just listen. We used to go pick wildflowers. Cemeteries were one of our obsessions. We shared the same wierd sense of humor. I can't accept that she will never walk through the door and throw her arms around me and hug me in that strange dance we used to do when we saw each other. We loved each other so very, very much. It's so hard to watch what her loss has done to our family, especially my mom and the girls. Now they have to grow up without their Mom and she LOVED them SO MUCH!!! She was beautiful, and special and kind and funny and I loved her. I wrote this "poem" the night she died. ~Come Play, A tale of Sisters ~ My Gypsy~ An Ode to Rebecca Eleven OH six. The "children" are asleep now. Time to Play.No more Mommy. No More. Just me and us..... and the emptiness.~I know You feel it. You want us 2 Come Play! Come Play & Dance and Sing and Listen to our Daddy's Laughter, You had to Lead the Way. To show us where the path begins... All the Way to where the Rocks reach beyond forever; The Wildflowers blooming for all eternity. My Gypsy! The Little Girl who grew into the Woman who Always flew with me..... High above the Clouds. Now, looking down upon us your only thought is ofThe Light that you hold for us, in the BIGGEST of HEARTS..... And beckon...Until we come to join the Dance, We will take Your Hands, and Complete the Circle. This Circle of Ours , where We live again always; In the beautiful light of your Smile and the Love that We Share.Our Circle will Never be broken. You show us the way. ~You, ~You Trailblazing Gypsy Woman, ~My Bohemian Sister ,In whose reflection we are destined to see ourselves and so much More.It is a SIGHT to SEE! I KNOW, because You told me: "Look What I Can Do"! We See We wait; WITHOUT patience, to hear your voice and heed the call : Come Play, Look at Me! Look at Us.... Look at Love. come play.....I love you my Sister, my Friend, my Heart ; Now and Forever..... ~Holly~ Born August 18th, 1960 at 12:41 AM ~Anchorage Alaska Crossed over December 17th, 2008 at 5:57 PM~Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas##imported-begin##Holly Horton##imported-end##

Thank you so much to everyone who is helping us during this hard time... I could'nt have asked for a better Mom... She was always so much fun and she was workin so hard for us... She just loved her boss Jerry and his family... It doesnt seem right that I'm having to write this cuz my mom passed away... It has been so hard... Mom: i miss you so much and im so glad that i got to talk to you that morning... Thank you for calling me every morning afternoon and night... I dont remember ever going a day without talking to you...I will miss looking for new cowboy boots together, pickin up rocks, stopping to pick wildflowers, and just hangin out watching movies! I couldn't have asked for a better Mom! You were such a blessing and i cant wait to see you again! I love you soooo much!! i can't wait to see you again!!!! till then i love you soo much mom and i know that you are smiling down with that wonderful smile, long curly hair, red lipstick, and cowboy boots!...miss you.....

To the Extended Family of Rebecca Jane Wilson Chamberlain, with abiding respect and deepest regrets and condolences. I was fortunate enough to know Becky during her time at Cooper Optical. She had the sweetest spirit and loved her family and lived her life to the fullest extent possible. She never met a stranger; and was always willing to help anyone in need. I was stunned and saddened to learn of Becky's tragic accident and passing. She will live on in our hearts and minds, with great fondness, forever. Please know that you have been, are and will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.....##imported-begin##Matthew Lanagan##imported-end##

The photo of Becky with her hair blowing across her face and her beautiful smile brought memories rushing back of the times I spent with Becky, our little Gypsy; our little Flower Child. I worked eight years at Cooper's, most of them side by side with Becky. She had the sweetest spirit, the kindest heart; always beautiful physically and spiritually, Becky made everyone feel better about themselves because Becky always believed the best about everyone. God has called her to be with Him too soon. We still need our Becky to remind us that life moves too fast and it's ok to enjoy the small treasures along the way. I can't wait to see her in Heaven. I can just see her across the way, standing in her flowing skirt and cowboy boots, her hair fluttering in the breeze as she turns toward me with that beautiful smile ever present, "Hey Girl, I missed you."##imported-begin##Tracy J Grainger##imported-end##

When I saw Becky's picture in the paper with her hair blowing in the wind and her beautiful smile, it brought back memories when we worked together at cooper optical and she always had a way to make you feel better and enjoy your work even more. She will be missed dearly by all those who knew her and loved her. May God bless those left behind. Pat McGlaun##imported-begin##Pat McGlaun##imported-end##

I did not know Becky as a personal friend; however I do remember her from ball games and school activities that she attended for her girls. Kaitlin and Laurin were like my own children and their sister Maddy was always with them doing things. They stayed at my home many many times.
