My heart and prayers are with you all. I am so glad I got to see him earlier this month, he meant so much to me and my family. I will miss the ability to hug him in the future, yet I know that he will always be with us. Because he left a piece of himself in each of our hearts. He touched so many people in his lifetime just as Pete did. It will be a joy to meet him again through these people just like I meet my Father on those occasions when I need him most. He made the world a better place through his actions and he will live on through us all. It is a very special legacy when you give of yourself to make the world a better place. By the way Larry, I know your listening, no snow today okay? Don't need you getting even with me like Dad did or showing off your new found Angel powers. Love you all, if you need me call or email.###imported-begin###Karen Henderson Stubbs###imported-end##

I have been a friend of Larry's daughter Lee and her husband Mike for over 25 years. I am also the godfather of Lee's daughter Savannah. Throughout these years I got to know Larry Megason and have found him to be a very welcoming, fun, generous, and interesting individual. He seemed to enjoy spending time with you and talking about his hobbies. Larry had a mind for the mechanics of how things worked and was always tinkering with cars, his gun collection, etc. Most of all it seemed he really loved his family and friends.###imported-begin##Jon Pitt###imported-end##

Lee and Reid, I have such wonderful childhood memories of your dad, my Uncle Larry. He was always so fun and loving and I always looked forward to seeing him at family events. I can't imagine what a tough time this must be for you right now. I don't have adequate words...but please know that I'm thinking about both of you and your families!!! I'm hoping that you can think of all of the happy holiday memories that you have of your dad during this difficult week. Love to you, Gretchen
