I loved my grandmother so much. Mom, Cynthia, and other loved ones missing her, my prayers are with you and my heart hurts like yours. I sleep easily, knowing she's with her Lord & Savior, Jesus, in Heaven, free of arthritis, pain, glaucoma, and other physical ailments that beat her down the last many years! I'll see you one day, Grandmother. You taught me so many good things about life and the Lord, and helped instill so many of my values.##imported-begin##Barry Propes##imported-end##

I knew Myrtle Faye at Kingsley Place when my sister was there. We had so many nice visits and fun playing bingo and at the Peanut auctions. She was always such a gracious lady and spoke so lovingly of her family and how good they were to her. She will be missed but we'll meet again!##imported-begin##Bette Parent##imported-end##

I am so very sorry for your loss. I am very good friends with Myrtle's daughter, Cynthia. She is an angel sent from heaven. Even though I did not have the pleasure of knowing Myrtle, I do know that she was and is loved by so many people during her lifetime. My prayers are with the entire family. God bless you all.##imported-begin##Marge B. Hall##imported-end##
