Family. sorry I couldn't be there to honor a very special lady. Though only by marriage I was considered a part of the family. Aunt Bet was loved greatly because she shared her Christian love with many. Thanks for the memories. Love to all Johnnie & Lynda##imported-begin##Johnnie Standard##imported-end##

I was in shock today when I got the news about Aunt Bet. I feel terrible that by the time I found out, there had already been a funeral. I loved Aunt Bet so very much. Her distinct laugh, her constant joking, and her ability to make you feel loved will truly be missed. I miss my family there in Texas and I am praying for you all in this difficult time. If there is a bright side, there is about to be one heck of a family reunion up above. God Bless!##imported-begin##karen salter moore##imported-end##

When Beth and I worked together at the City of Longview, it was a real joy. We accomplished a bunch and had lots of fun doing it. She was one heck of a lady and will be sorely missed. Although unable to attend the service, my thoughts and prayers are with the family.##imported-begin##Suzanne Renfro##imported-end##

I had the pleasure of working with Beth for 6 years at the City of Goodyear and have stayed in touch with her over the last nine years while living in Goodyear. Beth was a true joy to work with - she always had a smile for everyone and her presence brightened our days! I always considered Beth a fiesty lady who was full of life. Beth truly enjoyed and loved her sisters and her dogs....it was always fun to hear the family stories about both! I will always remember Beth fondly....she was a super lady I liked and respected very much!##imported-begin##Kay Wilkinson##imported-end##
