I loved her like a sister. We had so many good times. She was always smiling.....well most of the time when I wasn't stressing her out!!! She was the best and I will never forget her. She will be missed by everyone who came in contact with her....especially me.....she loved to laugh, crack jokes, gossip and when we couldn't find anything else to do, we did a little bit of work!!or pick on the man in the shop!##imported-begin##Allene Miller##imported-end##

I was so heartbroken to hear about Nancy's passing. We have kept our friendship intact for close to 20 years. I'll never forget our trip to Fredericksburg together. What a truly wonderful person and I am so very proud to have had her as a friend. She lives on in my heart and always will with all of the good memories. We are all lucky to have had her in our lives. May God bless each of her family and friends and help us all through this loss. Although I couldn't get to Longview yesterday, I stopped what I was doing at 4:30 yesterday and had a very special moment of silence.##imported-begin##Cindy Daniels##imported-end##

May we discover through pain and torment, the strength to live with grace and humor. May we discover through doubt and anguish, the strength to live with dignity and holiness. May we discover through suffering and fear, the strength to move toward healing. May it come to pass that we be restored to health and to vigor. May Life grant us wellness of body, spirit, and mind. And if this cannot be so, may we find in this transformation and passage moments of meaning, opportunities for love and the deep and gracious calm that comes when we allow ourselves to move on. - Rabbi Rami M.
