Sandra and family,We are so sorry about your loss. We hope that each day will bring you more comfort.When I recall the many loved ones I have lost the lyrics of one of myfavorite hymns comfort me. "Precious memories how they linger;precious memories fill my soul". And those memories do sustain me.We had planned to attend visitation, but I have been battling a tooth which the endodontist assures me is healthy now for 6 months. When it hurts it puts me down.Know that we are thinking of you.##imported-begin##Clarwanda & Coy ##imported-end##

Sandra and family, Your Charles was "larger than life" to all who knew him. I admired him so very much, and wish I could have known him better. The memorial service at our church was a blessing to all of us, and I regret that I did not get to sign the guest book. Jason Horn's music really said it all spiritually, and the eulogies by ministers, brother, and friend were perfect. Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you seek "the peace that passes all understanding." May God bless and keep you in His loving arms. I was so sorry to hear of Charles passing. Whenever we would run into each other it was always just like old times. He was a stabilizing part of my time with the Longview Jaycees. I hope that the family finds comfort in knowing how many friends he had and how well he was thought of.##imported-begin##Larry Bennett##imported-end##
