I never knew Josh personally. I knew of him through my bf and his sister. & then when he passed i heard of him a lot by the two friends i met when i came down to texas. I will say that i grew to love him and i miss him even though he never knew me. I think of him a lot and i wish i could have met him. I believe me and him would have been very good friends. I am very sad that he is gone but i know he'll never be forgotten. He seemed like a wonderful soul. I know he is watching over us and God is keeping him safe. I love you Josh & i consider us very good friends even though you're not beside me in body but spirit.Sincerely, Coralys.##imported-begin##Coralys Alvarez##imported-end##

It's been almost a year. I can't believe that. I went to metal night a couple times this summer and thought about you. Every now and then I remember your cackle and I laugh to myself. I miss you very much. I know times were difficult for you then and I wish I could have helped you as much as you helped me. We leaned to each other for support and I'll always be thankful that I had you to help me through those times. I don't think anyone has ever been so in tune with me and I hope one day we'll get to talk about life, love, and dreams again. Much love, Josh.##imported-begin##Anna##imported-end##

Every day since you have been gone has been extremely hard. My heart breaks every day I wake up and realize you're not here. I miss you every single minute...I know you are in heaven and everything is perfect, but I still miss talking to you,seeing you and being with you. Seeing your family is so wonderfeul and so hard at the same time...I plan on going to see them on your birthday again this year..Oh and I found our favorite picture a few days ago!!! I had been looking for it since you passed..I know God led me to it,because i had already looked for it several times where it was found , and it was such a bittersweet moment for me. I long for the day to embrace you again in heaven when it is my time to leave this earth. I love you Josh, and I always will.Angie##imported-begin##Angela Mitchell##imported-end##

I went to high school with Josh, but never really hung out with him... It wasn't until I worked with him at our local Dairy Queen when I got to know Josh. He was a great guy to work with, and was misunderstood by most of our class. I got him though. I will miss you man. I am glad we were able to be friends. My prayers go out to his family.##imported-begin##John Salinas##imported-end##
