Marjorie was a neighbor ,friend,and classmate.Upon moving to Kilgore at Camp St, Marjorie walked over and was most charming to me and my brother.Marjories parents were as well so kind. We moved from Kilgore in the early 80's and my last memory was of Marjorie, and her family offering as much help packing and a fabulous going away meal. A kind decent and truly caring family. I will cherish those moments and keep those memories in the deepest part of my heart.RIP Marjorie, and May God bring peace to those you left too soom.Greg M###imported-begin##Greg###imported-end##

To all Marjorie's family: I learned only yesterday, and accidentally while online, of Marjorie's passing. I cannot tell you how shocked I was! Her mother was one of my dearest friends in Kilgore. We taught together, and once we took Marjorie and my son Walter to the Buffalo River in Arkansas when they were about 12.I cannot begin to express my sorrow at your loss. I would like for someone to contact me.Still stunned, I wish for you the peace that passeth all understanding.Mildred B. Venitucci###imported-begin##Mildred Brady Venitucci###imported-end##

Marjorie was such a bubbly person and had a way of making you feel like you had known her all your life. I first heard of her through a cousin of hers who described her as a fun, friendly, girl. When I finally got to meet her I agreed wholeheartedly. She was a precious person that was so obviously proud of her family. I wish I could have been able to have known her even better. Heartfelt prayers to her family, I know she is dearly missed. I was riding around with Marjorie the summer after she graduated HS when we ran into a couple of friends of hers. Marjorie, How could we ever anticipate your sudden departure from this world? You were too young to be taken from us. As I reflect back on my memories of you, I always go back to Papa's and Grandma's home on the Laneville hwy and the times you babysat me. It seems so long ago. I feel so guilty that I didn't spend more of my adult life with you and your family. I miss Aunt Pat, Uncle Ted, Billy Ted, and you. I am thankful now that Jennifer and I did make it back to a couple of Christmas parties at Billy and Sherri's where we got to see you and visit. But now with us in Oklahoma, I honestly can't remember the last time I talked with you. I love you and you will be missed! My prayer is that God will use your tragic passing as a reminder to ALL that we will have to make this journey as well and we don't get to pick the time. It is so important to understand Jesus and how He loves us and wants to be part of our lives. And it is through him alone that our sins can be reconciled because He laid down His life for us. I pray for God's anointing on Uncle Ted, Billy Ted, the kids and ALL the immediate family and friends as we go through the next 48 hours. May Marjorie be remembered well and may God be glorified in this tragedy. One last time, I love you Marjorie, goodbye and rest in peace...Dane R.
