My deepest condolences on the passing of Kathy:Kathy and I were great friends from grade school through high school, back in Vermont. I remember her big smile, red hair and freckles. I was so shocked to hear of her passing and cried like a baby when I did. I am so happy that she and I reconnected these past few years through emails. I shall miss those emails. God speed, Kathy. You will be missed by all who knew and loved you.##imported-begin##Bonnie Brasure##imported-end##

I have a couple of photos of your mother, when she was young. One of those photos was of when we were on a field trip from grade school...probably 4th or 5th grade. We were standing in line waiting to get into some place in down town White River, VT and she was behind me. When I turned to take her picture, she stuck her tongue out at me. *lol* I have such fond memories of Kathy. Just writing this, brings tears to my eyes. She truly was such a good friend to me. I will miss her emails.##imported-begin##Bonnie McKella Brasure##imported-end##
